Resiliency And Success Migrant Children In The U S:

OECD Reviews of Migrant Education The Resilience of Students with an Immigrant Background Factors that Shape Well-being OECD,2018-03-19 The Resilience of Students with an Immigrant Background Factors that Shape Well-being reveals some of the difficulties students with an immigrant background encounter and where they receive the support they need Children's Human Rights and Public Schooling in the United States Julia Hall,2013-02-11 Promotion Text for Children's Human Rights and Public Schooling in the United States Julia Hall The United States tends to portray itself as a human rights leader However human rights concerns are confronted everyday by people in this democracy including children The purpose of this volume is to bring attention to the fact that against the backdrop of neoliberal expansion serious human rights violations are taking place among children everywhere including in the US The daily struggles among groups of school children in the US are specifically considered here such as children who are sorted by race homeless children transient children child refugees children as targeted by human traffickers and or child migrant workers As the economy continues to constrict more and more young people find themselves struggling to grow up on these razor thin margins of survival Given current economic arrangements such margins are widening The definition of children's human rights as understood in this analysis is taken directly from the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child CRC Here emphasis is placed on ways in which the CRC could be used to serve more effectively the needs of the most vulnerable populations of school age children in the US and elsewhere Public schools could be the very place where children come to understand they have rights Unfortunately many children do not get this information Instead the protections stated in the CRC and the realities of the lives of so many children are often worlds apart This volume sets out to be a part of changing this Resiliency and Success Encarnacion Garza, Enrique T. Trueba, Pedro Reyes, 2015-12-03 This book elucidates the amazing life journeys of academically successful migrant students Offering vivid case studies of successful students this book helps teachers education students and researchers understand the factors that lead to success by minority language children The authors develop the lessons of student success stories into recommendations for schools and for educational policy Readers gain from this book the stories of real students the challenges they faced and the means by which students and schools may overcome language and cultural barriers to educational success Mexican American Children and Families Yvonne M. Caldera, Eric Lindsey, 2014-11-27 Offering insight on Mexican American culture families and children this book provides an interdisciplinary examination of this growing population Leaders from psychology education health and social policy review recent research and provide policy implications of their findings Both quantitative and qualitative literature is summarized Using current theories the handbook reviews the cultural social and inter and intra personal experiences that contribute to the well being of Mexican Americans Each chapter follows the same format to make comparisons easier Researchers and students from various disciplines interested in Mexican Americans will appreciate this accessible book U.S. Immigration and Education

Elena L. Grigorenko, 2013 This handbook helps readers to both understand and craft policies to aid the successful acculturation of immigrants in the US It is an excellent road map for researchers in immigration and education as well as educational and developmental psychologists sociologists economists and public policy makers An immigrant from Russia Dr Grigorenko weaves her first hand experiences and strategies into this unique text It encompasses all available research on immigration and acculturation from new information on bilingual education to studies of low skill versus high skill workers Key Topics Immigration and America a current snapshot of US immigration policy and a demographic profile Immigration and education Pre K through grade 12 higher and adult education and the labor market Immigration and incorporation into society Implications for human development health and policy

Race and Family Roberta L. Coles, 2006 The author provided interesting original examples which I found engaging I think the biggest strength is avoiding the one ethnicity per chapter approach found in so many books on family diversity I like the structural approach Hilary A Rose Concordia University A very useful book as a companion text for courses on race and ethnicity The chapters are easy to follow for undergraduate students Renxin Yang Northern Michigan University I think the book is needed because there are limited choices currently available and this book is moving in the right direction A strength is that it is not an edited book like so many other books on this topic There is a need for detailed study of ethnic minority families and I am excited about making this book my required text for my Ethnic Families Course Cheryl Burgan Evans Miami University I find the emphasis on social structure particularly appealing To date I have used Taylor s edited book which depends on the instructor to provide all of the integration Gretchen Cornwell Pennsylvania State University In Race and Family A Structural Approach author Roberta L Coles looks at ethnic minority families in a novel way through a structural lens Unlike many texts on race and family this book offers an approach that illustrates overarching structural factors affecting all families as opposed to examining each ethnicity in isolation from one another By focusing on various structural factors such as demographic economic and historical aspects this book analyzes various family trends in a cross cutting manner to exemplify the similarities and distinctions among all racial and ethnic groups Key Features Establishes commonalities and differences across various cultures within American society in an approach that enables students to better compare and contrast different ethnic groups Covers multiracial families in addition to traditional ethnic groups such as African American Native American Latino American and Asian American to provide the most contemporary examination of American families Uses the latest research and Census data to present a relevant assessment of trends in family structure gender relations intergenerational relations family violence acculturation interracial marriage and adoption in an increasingly diverse American context Includes an annotated listing of suggested videos autobiographies articles and Web sites students can explore for further information Race and Family is a brief core textbook designed for advanced undergraduate and graduate students studying ethnic minority families and family diversity in the departments of Human Development Family Studies

Family Consumer Sciences and Sociology Immigrant Faculty in the Academy Maysaa Barakat, Mariela A. Rodríguez, 2020-08-31 This edited volume shares the diverse experiences of immigrant professors in the United States. Chapters provide insight for educators in academia seeking deeper understanding of issues of identity and intersectionality, assimilation and integration, culture and its different manifestations, accent and the politics of language and hegemonic systems and structures. Blending autoethnographies and case studies, this book highlights the invaluable collective experiences of immigrant professors as they navigate challenges and success. By sharing these rich stories, Immigrant Faculty in the Academy contributes to the conversation on career development, the professoriate and immigration.

Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity Linda C. Tillman, James Joseph Scheurich, 2013-08-21 The rapid growth of diversity within U.S. schooling and the heightened attention to the lack of equity in student achievement, school completion and postsecondary attendance has made equity and diversity two of the principle issues in education. Educational leadership and educational leadership research. The Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity is the first research-based handbook that comprehensively addresses the broad diversity in U.S. schools by race, ethnicity, culture, language, gender, disability, sexual identity and class. The Handbook both highly values the critically important strengths and assets that diversity brings to the United States and its schools yet at the same time candidly critiques the destructive deficit thinking, biases and prejudices that undermine school success for many groups of students. Well-known chapter authors explore diversity and related inequities in schools and the achievement problems these issues present to school leaders. Each chapter reviews theoretical and empirical evidence of these inequities and provides research-based recommendations for practice and for future research. Celebrating the broad diversity in U.S. schools, the Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity critiques the inequities connected to that diversity and provides evidence-based practices to promote student success for all children.

Perspectives on Wellbeing: Applications from the Field, 2022-03-07 This volume provides an exciting introduction to social wellbeing and different epistemological standpoints. Targeted at researchers, students, academics, policy makers, practitioners and activists, the volume allows stakeholders to collectively problematise and address marginalised populations' social wellbeing, providing perspectives and applications from various disciplines such as education, health, public policy and social welfare. Chapters continue to debate social wellbeing within their disciplines and challenges. Practitioners and researchers experience particularly interactions between individual and social aspects of wellbeing. Contributors provide practical and academic discussions drawing upon different cultural, historical, political and social paradigms, putting forward available empirical data. Contributors are Andrew Azzopardi, Amanda Bezzina, Trevor Calafato, Joanne Cassar, Marlene Cauchi, Carmel Cefai, Marilyn Clark, Maureen Cole, Katya De Giovanni, Melanie E. Demarco, Andreana Dibben, Ruth Falzon, Marvin Formosa, Natalie Kenely, Dione Mifsud, Brenda Murphy, Claudia Psaila, Sandra Scicluna, Anabel Scolaro, Miriam Teuma, Anna Maria Vella, Sue Vella and Carla Willing.
