The Making of Us Sheridan Voysey, 2019-03-19 Beautifully written and deeply poignant The Making of Us allows readers to walk alongside author and radio personality Sheridan Voysey during a transformational moment in his life journey Picking up where Resurrection Year Turning Broken Dreams Into New Beginnings left off Sheridan helps us process what we can learn about our identities in the face of disappointment and change Life had not gone according to plan for Sheridan Voysey and his wife Merryn When infertility ended their dream of becoming parents they uprooted their lives and relocated from Australia to Oxford England so Merryn could pursue her professional goals But the move meant Sheridan had to give up his well established career in Christian radio and though he was experiencing some success as a writer he couldn't reconcile his expectations for his life with the reality he was living. Lost and directionless he came to a sobering realization. I don't know who I am. Following the example of many a seeker, Sheridan decided to pair his spiritual journey with a literal one: a hundred mile pilgrimage along the northeast coast of England. Inspired by the life and influence of the monk Cuthbert who was among the first to evangelize northern England in the 600s, Voysey and his friend DJ traveled on foot from the Holy Island of Lindisfarne to Durham where the famed Lindisfarne Gospels were on display. What makes us who we are. What shapes our hopes and dreams and how do we adjust when things don't go as we hoped. Can we recover if we make a choice that's less than perfect. Voysey tackles these questions and others as he deftly weaves together Cuthbert's story, the history of early Christianity in England and his own struggle to find his identity and purpose. His introspective writing leads readers to consider their own stories and reflect on how God calls each of us to an identity bigger than any earthly role or career. Part travel memoir, part pilgrim's journal, The Making of Us is a quiet story including a chapter by chapter reflection guide of trust in God's leading for our lives no matter where our paths take us. The Whole of Life for Christ Antony Billington, 2015-07-17 Suppose for a moment that Jesus really is interested in every aspect of your life. Everything: the dishes and the dog and the day job and the drudgery of some of the stuff you just have to do. The TV programme you love, the staff in your local supermarket as well as the homeless in the local shelter, your boss as well as your vicar, helping a shopper find the ketchup as well as brewing the tea for the life group, the well being of your town and the well being of your neighbour. Suppose the truth that every Christian is a new creature in Christ, empowered by the Spirit to do his will, means that Christ is with you everywhere you go, in every task you do, with every person you meet. Suppose God wants to involve you in what he's doing in the places you spend your time day by day. Suppose your whole life is important to Christ. He does. These seven studies will help you explore and live out the marvellous truth that the gospel is an invitation into whole life discipleship, into a life following and imitating Jesus. Workshop 2 Kara Martin, 2018-05-01 How does faith at work look like in reality. In this follow up to Workshop 1, Kara Martin shares more practical wisdom on making a difference in the workplace. Topics range from hospitality and leadership to ethical issues and workplace conflict, to reflections on unemployment, women and work and the future of work. Kara also provides effective ways that churches can adopt to better equip their congregations to workshop addressing areas like service programmes, workplace visitations and mentoring. From the church to the local community, Workshop 2 helps bridge the sacred/secular divide and inspires workers to thrive in their working.

Walking in Wonder George R. Sinclair, 2014-11-13 In ministry as in life we get knocked down. Sometimes due to our folly or despair or fatigue or external opposition we stumble and fall. How do we get back up again and again and again? Resiliency, the ability to bounce back, is a gift of God. Leaders are able to get up and follow the crucified and risen Lord when they are drawn when they are enchanted by the awesome mystery of the triune God. Discipleship has never been easy. The way, staying on the narrow path that leads to abundant life is hard Today no less than the first disciples followers of Christ face an array of challenges not the least of which is disenchantment We had hoped he was the one to redeem Israel Luke 24 21 Seen through an Enlightenment lens disenchantment may be more acute and prevalent in our times but it is not new We walk our own Emmaus Road And when we keep walking when we follow the one who joins us on the Road eyes are opened hearts burn the one standing before us is recognized and we are sustained for the journey This collection of theological essays on ministry is an invitation to run and not be weary to walk and not faint Isa 40 31 by walking in wonder with the wholly other God who is near
