Resistance, Space and Political Identities David Featherstone, 2008-09-22 Utilizing research on networked struggles in both the 18th century Atlantic world and our modern day Resistance Space and Political Identities The Making of Counter Global Networks challenges existing understandings of the relations between space politics and resistance to develop an innovative account of networked forms of resistance and political activity Explores counter global struggles in both the past and present including both the 18th century Atlantic world and contemporary forms of resistance Examines the productive geographies of contestation Foregrounds the solidarities and geographies of connection between different place based struggles and argues that such solidarities are essential to produce more plural forms of globalization Mobile Urbanism Eugene McCann, Kevin Ward, 2011 How knowledge and power flow between places and impact cities worldwide A Guide to Spatial History Konrad Lawson, Riccardo Bavaj, Bernhard Struck, 2022-01-07 This guide provides an overview of the thematic areas analytical aspects and avenues of research which together form a broader conversation around doing spatial history Spatial history is not a field with clearly delineated boundaries For the most part it lacks a distinct unambiguous scholarly identity It can only be thought of in relation to other typically more established fields Indeed one of the most valuable utilities of spatial history is its capacity to facilitate conversations across those fields Consequently it must be discussed in relation to a variety of historiographical contexts Each of these have their own intellectual genealogies institutional settings and conceptual path dependencies With this in mind this guide surveys the following areas territoriality infrastructure and borders nature environment and landscape city and home social space and political protest spaces of knowledge spatial imaginaries cartographic representations and historical GIS research Protest and the politics of space and place, 1789-1848 Katrina Navickas, 2015-12-01 This book is a wide ranging survey of the rise of mass movements for democracy and workers rights in northern England It is a provocative narrative of the closing down of public space and dispossession from place The book offers historical parallels for contemporary debates about protests in public space and democracy and anti globalisation movements In response to fears of revolution from 1789 to 1848 the British government and local authorities prohibited mass working class political meetings and societies Protesters faced the privatisation of public space The Peterloo Massacre of 1819 marked a turning point Radicals trade unions and the Chartists fought back by challenging their exclusion from public spaces creating their own sites and eventually constructing their own buildings or emigrating to America This book also uncovers new evidence of protest in rural areas of northern England including rural Luddism It will appeal to academic and local historians as well as geographers and scholars of social movements in the UK France and North America The Postcolonial Body in Queer Space and Time Rebecca Fine Romanow, 2009-03-26 The Postcolonial Body in Queer Space and Time examines the ways in which the notion of the postcolonial correlates to Judith Halberstam s idea of queer space and time the non normative path of Western lifestyles and hegemonies Emphasizing authors from Africa and Southeast Asia in the diaspora in London from the mid 1960s through 1990 the reading of both postcolonial lands and subjects as queer counterproductive space reveals a depiction of bodies in these texts as located in and performing queer space and time redefining and relocating the understanding of the postcolonial The first wave of postcolonial literature produced by diasporics presents the body as the site where the non normative is performed revealing the beginnings of a corporeal resistance to the re colonization of the diasporic individual residing in England from the Wilson through the Thatcher regimes This study emphasizes the ways in which early postcolonial literature embodies and encounters the topics of race gender and sexuality proving that a rejection of subjectifying processes through the representation of the body has always been present in diasporic postcolonial literature Reading through postcolonial theory as well as the works of Foucault Deleuze and Guattari Hardt and Negri Homi Bhabha and Giorgio Agamben as well as Halberstam and queer theory The Postcolonial Body in Queer Space and Time discusses the poetry and journals of Arthur Nortje Hanif Kureishi s The Buddha of Suburbia and his film Sammy and Rosie Get Laid and Tayeb Salih s Season of Migration to the North tracing a geographic arc from homeland to London to the return to the homeland traveling through the queer space and time of the postcolonial Africa's Information Revolution James T.
