Providing Peacekeepers The Politics Challenges And Future Of United Nations Peacekeeping Contributions:

Providing Peacekeepers Alex J. Bellamy, Paul D. Williams, 2013-02-28 Providing Peacekeepers analyzes the factors which encourage or discourage states from contributing their soldiers to serve in United Nations peacekeeping operations. It focuses on the UN's experiences during the twenty-first century and does so through four thematic and sixteen case study chapters.

European Approaches to United Nations Peacekeeping Joachim A. Koops, Giulia Tercovich, 2018-12-07 This edited volume provides a comprehensive analysis of European approaches to United Nations peacekeeping by assessing past practice, present obstacles, and future potentials related to nine core European countries' contributions to blue helmet operations. By providing in-depth case studies on Denmark, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Norway, Sweden, The Netherlands, and the United Kingdom, this book offers an evaluation of European approaches as well as a wide range of facilitating and constraining factors related to the above-mentioned countries' future involvement in UN peacekeeping. The book places particular emphasis on the recent involvement of European countries in the UN operation in Mali (MINUSMA) and explores to what extent this experience might lead to further marked increases of European supplies of troops and capabilities and thus a broader European return to UN peacekeeping. Each chapter offers an up-to-date case study on key countries' policies, challenges, and opportunities for a stronger re-engagement in UN Peacekeeping. It provides a comprehensive analysis of the main challenges and concrete ways ahead for overcoming institutional, political, financial, and military obstacles both at European capitals and within the UN system on the path towards a stronger re-engagement of European troop-contributing countries in the field of UN Peacekeeping. Furthermore, each chapter includes a set of policy-relevant recommendations for future ways ahead. The chapters in this book were originally published in International Peacekeeping.

United Nations Peacekeeping Challenge Anna Powles, Negar Partow, 2016-03-09 Drawing from a diverse range of military policing, academic, and policymakers' experiences, this book seeks to provide solutions of how national militaries and police can work together to better support future United Nations peacekeeping operations. It addresses the growing tension between increasing non-combat related responsibilities being placed on land forces and the ability of UN peacekeeping forces to fulfil the demands of government and development tasks in fragile and conflict-affected environments. An original contribution to the debate on UN peacekeeping reforms that includes constructing an enhanced partnership for peacekeeping, building on renewed commitment to share the burden, and for regional cooperation, providing peacekeepers with the necessary capabilities to protect civilians and supporting nations in transition from conflict to stabilisation. This book offers the very latest in informed analysis and decision making on UN peacekeeping reform.

UN Peacekeeping Doctrine in a New Era Cedric de Coning, Chiyuki Aoi, John Karlsrud, 2017-02-20 This edited volume offers a thorough review of peacekeeping theory and reality in contemporary contexts and aligns the two to help inform practice. Recent UN peacekeeping operations have challenged the traditional peacekeeping principles of consent, impartiality, and the minimum use of force. The pace and scope of these changes have now reached a tipping point as the new mandates are fundamentally challenging the continued validity of the UN peacekeeping's core principles and identity. In response, the volume analyses the growing gap between these actual practices and existing UN peacekeeping doctrine, exploring how it undermines the effectiveness of UN operations and endangers lives, arguing that a common doctrine is a critical starting point for effective multi-national operations. In order to determine the degree to which this general principle applies to the current state of UN peacekeeping, this book provides a review of conceptual and doctrinal developments in UN peacekeeping operations through a historical perspective. Examines the debate related to peace operations doctrine and concepts among key Member States. Focuses on the actual practice of peacekeeping by conducting case studies of several UN peacekeeping missions in order to identify gaps between practice and doctrine. Critically analyses gaps between emerging peacekeeping practice and existing doctrine. Recommends that the UN moves beyond the peacekeeping principles and doctrine of the past. Combining empirical case-based studies on UN peace operations with studies on the views and policies of key UN Security Council members that generate these mandates and views of key contributors of UN peacekeepers, this volume will be of great use to policy makers, UN officials and peace operations practitioners and academics working on peace and conflict, security studies, international organizations and conflict management.

Handbook on Peacekeeping and International Relations Han Dorussen, 2022-12-06

Integrating comparative empirical studies with cutting edge theory, this dynamic Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the study and practice of peacekeeping. Han Dorussen brings together a diverse range of contributions which represent the most recent generation of peacekeeping research, embodying notable shifts in the kinds of questions asked as well as the data and methods employed.

Revitalizing the United Nations Tapio Kanninen, John Torpey, 2025-10-30

This book explores whether the United Nations UN is relevant in resolving wars when the permanent members of the UN Security Council are directly or indirectly involved. It examines solutions to major wars by applying and testing the UN's vast experience in mediating and deploying peacekeeping, demilitarization, truce monitoring, UN temporary administration and other tools. While some observers see the organization in deep decline as the Security Council cannot agree to stop the wars in Ukraine and Gaza, the expert contributors to this volume make the case that until the start of this century the UN played a critically important role in resolving and freezing major conflicts and the renewal of the organization could be based on these and other successful precedents. This volume will be of interest to scholars and students of global governance, security studies and the history of the UN in the maintenance of international peace and security. It will also be of great interest to practitioners at the UN and its partner organizations as well as to diplomats around the world.

Advocacy and Change in International Organizations Kseniya Oksamytna, 2023-09-14

How do international organizations change? Many organizations expand into new areas or abandon programmes of work. Advocacy and Change in International Organizations argues that they do so not only at the collective direction of member states. Advocacy is a crucial but overlooked source of change in international organizations Different actors can advocate for change national diplomats international bureaucrats external experts or civil society activists They can use one of three advocacy strategies social pressure persuasion and authority talk The success of each strategy depends on the presence of favourable conditions related to characteristics of advocates targets issues and context Institutionalization of new issues in international organizations as a multi stage process often accompanied by contestation This book demonstrates how the advocacy focused framework explains the origins of three workstreams of contemporary UN peacekeeping operations communication protection and reconstruction The issue of strategic communications was promoted by UN officials through the strategy of persuasion Protection of civilians emerged due to a partially successful social influence campaign by a coalition of elected Security Council members and a subsequent and successful persuasion efforts by Canada Quick impact projects entered peacekeepers practice as the result of authority talk by an expert panel The three issues illustrate the diversity of pathways to change in international organizations representing the top down bottom up and outside in pathways Moreover they have achieved different degrees of institutionalization in UN s policies structures and frameworks protection of civilians is the most institutionalized as evidenced by measures to hold peacekeepers accountable for non implementation while quick impact projects are the least institutionalized

Equal Opportunity Peacekeeping Sabrina Karim, Kyle Beardsley, 2017 Despite reforms that have realized major improvements gender power imbalances within and through peacekeeping missions continue to pose major challenges Sabrina Karim and Kyle Beardsley explore how increasing the representation of women particularly through an equal opportunity framework will help peacekeeping operations become more of a vehicle for gender equality globally

Heng, 2014-03-13 This book aims to provide for a path breaking cross regional comparison of the capabilities and readiness of Asia Pacific countries to contribute to peace support missions with an eye to identifying emerging trends and policy implications

Point of Attack John Yoo, 2014-03-14 The world today is overwhelmed by wars between nations and within nations wars that have dominated American politics for quite some time Point of Attack calls for a new understanding of the grounds for war In this book John Yoo argues that the new threats to international security come not from war between the great powers but from the internal collapse of states terrorist groups the spread of weapons of mass destruction and destabilizing regional powers In Point of Attack he rejects the widely accepted framework built on the U N Charter and replaces it with a new system consisting of defensive pre-emptive or preventive measures to encourage wars that advance global welfare Yoo concludes with an analysis of the Afghanistan and Iraq wars failed states and the current challenges posed by Libya Syria North Korea and Iran
