Migration and Remittances from Mexico Alfredo Cuecuecha, Carla Pederzini, 2012-03-01 Migration and Remittances from Mexico Trends Impacts and New Challenges edited by Alfredo Cuecuecha and Carla Pederzini compiles twelve articles on the migration phenomenon from Mexico and other Latin American countries to the United States The first part of the book provides an overview of three recent surveys all carried out in Mexico The surveys consider international migration flows from Mexico to the United States the characteristics of migrants and some of the causes and effects of migration in Mexico both for national and rural samples The next section of the book analyzes the factors that explain the relationship between internal migration and human development Then the authors look at different issues of migration from Mexico and Latin American countries to the United States The topics include female educational selection in migrants from Mexico to the United States the impact of differences in the U S Mexico labor market outcomes on the migratory flow the working conditions of Mexican migrants to the United States under H2 visas and the breadth and depth of migrants connections from Latin American countries to the United States The fourth and final section of the book studies a variety of aspects related to remittances from United States to Mexico and Latin American countries including whether remittances promote growth in Mexico whether remittances sent to Mexico finance migration of more Mexicans to the United States and whether remittances have positive impacts in the households that receive them The contributors to Migration and Remittances from Mexico are specialized migration researchers trained in a broad variety of fields including economics sociology demography and political science in both Mexico and the United States This range of backgrounds provides an essential multidisciplinary perspective from both sides of the border Undercurrent Journal: Vol. 12, Issue 1 (Fall/Winter 2016) [COLOR] Andrey Hay (Editor-In-Chief), 2016-03-06 Undercurrent is the only student run national undergraduate journal publishing scholarly essays and articles that explore the subject of international development The journal is a refereed publication dedicated to providing a non partisan supportive yet critical and competitive forum exclusively for undergraduate research writing and editing

The Global Lives of German Migrants Marcel Erlinghagen, Andreas Ette, Norbert F. Schneider, Nils Witte, 2021-04-29 Based on the German case this open access book highlights the increasing flows of migration and the internationalisation of individual life courses It analyses the experiences of migration across four central domains employment and income partners and families health and wellbeing as well as friends and social participation which potentially have far reaching consequences for social inequalities and life chances The book showcases results from an innovative probability sample that is representative of German emigrants who recently moved abroad and remigrants who recently returned from abroad and compares their international experiences with the sedentary population in Germany Stays abroad whether temporary or permanently have become the new normal for increasing numbers of people from highly developed welfare states Unnoticed from mainstream migration studies these countries are today not only major immigration countries but also important sources of international mobility By providing an empirically founded prism of the global lives of German migrants this book is a valuable resource for students and researchers of migration social inequality and the life course and provides practitioners with insights into these regularly overlooked aspects of international migration
