perspective for the flock ensuring that the pastures were not overgrazed that the flock was not led too far away from access to water and that shelter was in reach in the event of storms and dangerous predators Over time the shepherds became increasingly skilled in caring for the flock They integrated the responsibility of the well being of the flock into their identity In a similar way we can take the responsibility for human water consumption and our interaction with the natural world We need to understand and work according to the big picture and the very long term perspective Being a water steward requires deep reflection of how water should be treated and our relationship with water Water utility professionals have the knowledge and have been trusted with the role of managing human water consumption This is a great responsibility and requires deep reflection of how this should be done The book will present ideas and concepts for the new role as well as questions for personal reflection

From Belonging to Belief Julie McBrien, 2017-06-08 From Belonging to Belief presents a nuanced ethnographic study of Islam and secularism in post Soviet Central Asia as seen from the small town of Bazaar Korgon in southern Kyrgyzstan Opening with the juxtaposition of a statue of Lenin and a mosque in the town square Julie McBrien proceeds to peel away the multiple layers that have shaped the return of public Islam in the region She explores belief and nonbelief varying practices of Islam discourses of extremism and the role of the state to elucidate the everyday experiences of Bazaar Korgonians McBrien shows how Islam is explored lived and debated in both conventional and novel sites a Soviet era cleric who continues to hold great influence popular television programs religious instruction at wedding parties clothing celebrations and others Through ethnographic research McBrien reveals how moving toward Islam is not a simple step but rather a deliberate and personal journey of experimentation testing and knowledge acquisition Moreover she argues that religion is not always a matter of belief sometimes it is essentially about belonging From Belonging to Belief offers an important corrective to studies that focus only on the pious turns among Muslims in Central Asia and instead shows the complex process of evolving religion in a region that has experienced both Soviet atheism and post Soviet secularism each of which has profoundly formed the way Muslims interpret and live Islam
