Our Memoirs Ann Peter Weston:

National Service Richard Vinen, 2014-08-28 SUNDAY TIMES BOOKS OF THE YEAR and FINANCIAL TIMES BOOKS OF THE YEAR 2014 WINNER OF THE TEMPLER MEDAL AND THE WOLFSON HISTORY PRIZE Sunday Times Top 10 Bestseller Richard Vinen's new book is a serious if often very entertaining attempt to get to grips with the reality of National Service an extraordinary institution which now seems as remote as the British Empire itself With great sympathy and curiosity Vinen unpicks the myths of the two gap years which all British men who came of age between 1945 and the early 1960s had to fill with National Service Millions of teenagers were thrown together and under often brutal conditions taught to obey orders and to fight The luck of the draw might result in two years of boredom in some dilapidated British barracks but it could also mean being thrown into a dangerous combat mission in a remote part of the world By any measure National Service had a huge impact on the nature of British society and yet it has been remarkably little written about As the military's needs wound down and Britain ceased to be a great power National Service came to be seen as just an embarrassment and its culture of rank and discipline something which many British people were by the 1960s running away from But without a proper understanding of National Service the story of post war Britain barely makes sense Richard Vinen provides that missing book It will be fascinating to those who endured or even enjoyed their time in uniform but also to anyone wishing to understand the unique nature of post war Britain A Memoir of Daniel Wheeler, with an Account of His Gospel Labours in the Islands of the Pacific Daniel Wheeler, 1859 Daughters of Light Rebecca Larson, 2000-09-01 More than a thousand Quaker female ministers were active in the Anglo American world before the Revolutionary War when the Society of Friends constituted the colonies third largest religious group Some of these women circulated throughout British North "Why I Became an Occupational Physician" and Other Occupational Health Stories John Hobson, The Society of Occupational Medicine, 2020-07-16 Why I Became an Occupational Physician and Other Occupational Health Stories brings together an edited collection of the short articles published in the journal Occupational Medicine between 2002 and 2018 The articles originally appeared as fillers commissioned to literally fill the blank spaces at the end of the main scientific papers but they soon became a feature in their own right Written by doctors working in occupational medicine and health the fillers began as a series of pieces exploring the varied and often surprising reasons why the individuals chose to pursue this unique speciality whether it was a natural career move triggered by a specific event or stumbled upon by chance Over time the articles became much broader in their scope and the journal began to attract pieces from some brilliant writers Mike Gibson John Challenor Nerys Williams and of course the superlative Anthony Seaton amongst many others Each article offers something different a peek into history a humorous adventure a quiet musing or a thought provoking observation but all are tied together under the umbrella of occupational medicine a speciality that is often little known or understood in the wider world of medicine This book brings together over 15 years worth of fascinating and diverse articles into one volume for the first time giving a rare insight into the world of the occupational physician Memoir Charles Wentworth Dilke,1875
