Conversations About Visiting and Managing the National Parks Robert E. Manning, Elizabeth E. Perry, 2024-12-11 As the popularity of the national parks grows so do the challenges of visiting and managing them This innovative book uses crowdsourcing postings by park visitors on a range of social media sites to start 100 conversations on issues associated with visiting and managing the national parks The authors then use their experience and expertise to prepare short plainspoken and engaging essays that respond to the postings and complete the conversations The book is written for park visitors managers and students This inventive thoughtful and inviting book addresses a wide range of national park related issues guides readers on how to more effectively plan and conduct their national park visits informs park planners and managers about what visitors think about the parks introduces the latest scientific and professional information on park management helps prepare students for careers in park management and enhances public appreciation and protection of the national parks

Reading the Two Books of God Thomas W. Mann, 2022-09-29 Thomas W Mann is a biblical scholar and retired parish minister and the author of numerous books and articles He is particularly interested in how experiences in nature prompt theological reflection based in the Bible shaping our sense of sacred time and place and how the lectionary readings of the church year also provide a spiritual calendar for the seasons of our lives The result is a conversation inspired by poets and writers like Mary Oliver Wendell Berry and John Muir but also by philosophers and theologians ranging from Abraham Joshua Heschel to David Kelsey Along the way we enter beach time and take backpacking trips in the Sierras but also join the triumphal entry parade on Palm Sunday and listen to the stable animals on Christmas Eve We perceive the beauty of creation through the eyes of science as well as religion sensually as well as intellectually We celebrate our communion with all creatures from fungus to forests inspired with awe and reverence and with a responsibility to care for the earth so threatened by climate change

Our National Park System Dwight F. Rettie, 1996-01-15 This is the first comprehensive look at America's national park system an insider's tour covering the system and the National Park Service the agency responsible for its care Dwight F Rettie former chief of the NPS policy development office is uniquely qualified to address the state the problems and the possibilities of the system which is comprised of millions of acres of land in more than 350 areas around the nation including historic sites battlefields and recreation areas Rettie agrees as many critics have claimed that the system is in disarray he proposes in detail stronger management operations clearer and more stringent measures of personnel performance and training of park rangers to help them become professionals knowledgeable about the scientific management and protection of resources For a concerned public as well as for policy makers and students of government this comprehensive analysis and outline may provide hope and a future for the invaluable legacy that is our national park system
