Our Peaceable Kingdom The Photographs Of John Drysdale:

Our Peaceable Kingdom John Drysdale, 2014-04-08 A collection of gorgeous photographs depicting the loving bond between humans and various species of animals John Drysdale's photographs are exciting tender hilarious often exhilarating but for more than the obvious reasons Certainly it's not every day that one sees a lion that's befriended a Boston terrier Maybe elephants don't usually go fishing and parrots generally don't tend to lounge around in beach chairs next to their human companions But in the peaceable kingdom of John Drysdale surprisingly unique alliances flourish His photographs are whimsical and charming but also carry a very important necessary truth the essential bonds of friendship transcend appearances expectations and traditions Cats can love mice bulldogs can rear squirrels and foxes can protect chicks With a refreshingly honest eye Drysdale has captured the many ways in which the creatures that inhabit the earth bring one another comfort and happiness Never mind that a burro and a boy are curled up on the sofa or that a chimpanzee is sunbathing with his human family by the pool Friendship is where you find it The familiarity and love expressed in Drysdale's work is heartfelt and very real as the endnotes explain the exotic animals that are his subjects were often orphaned as babies and reared along with the humans and other animals in the photographs Since his earliest photographs of children frolicking on the cobblestoned streets of London Drysdale's wonderfully illustrious career has spanned close to fifty years And in Our Peaceable Kingdom for the first time 100 of his most memorable images are collected in one beautiful volume destined to become a favorite on the shelves of children adults animal lovers and anyone who appreciates a good friend

From the Mouths of Dogs B.J. Hollars, 2015-11 What is it that dogs have done to earn the title of man's best friend And more broadly how have all of our furry feathered and four legged brethren managed to enrich our lives Why do we love them What can we learn from them And why is it so difficult to say good bye Join B J Hollars as he attempts to find out beginning with an ancient dog cemetery in Ashkelon Israel and moving to the present day Hollars's firsthand reports recount a range of stories the arduous existence of a shelter officer a woman's relentless attempt to found a senior dog adoption facility a family's struggle to create a one of a kind orthotic for its bulldog and the particular bond between a blind woman and her Seeing Eye dog The book culminates with Hollars's own cross country journey to Hartsdale Pet Cemetery the country's largest and oldest pet cemetery to begin the long overdue process of laying his own childhood dog to rest Through these stories Hollars reveals much about our pets but even more about the humans who share their lives providing a much needed reminder that the world would be a better place if we took a few cues from man's best friends
