DeLong, 2002 People fear to dispute the agency's interpretation of its power or express doubts about the absolute primacy of its mission lest they be made into examples The concept of intent has become so attenuated that it provides no limitation on prosecution Green Politics Dustin Mulvaney, 2011-06-28 Colorful bracelets funky brooches and beautiful handmade beads young crafters learn to make all these and much more with this fantastic step by step guide In 12 exciting projects with simple steps and detailed instructions budding fashionistas create their own stylish accessories to give as gifts or add a touch of personal flair to any ensemble Following the successful Art Smart series Craft Smart presents a fresh fun approach to four creative skills knitting jewelry making papercrafting and crafting with recycled objects Each book contains 12 original projects to make using a range of readily available materials There are projects for boys and girls carefully chosen to appeal to readers of all abilities A special techniques and materials section encourages young crafters to try out their own ideas while learning valuable practical skills Saving Our Environment from

Washington David Schoenbrod, 2008-10-01 Congress empowered the Environmental Protection Agency on the theory that only a national agency that is insulated from accountability to voters could produce the scientifically grounded pollution rules needed to save a careless public from its own filth In this provocative book David Schoenbrod explains how his experience as an environmental advocate brought him to this startling realization letting EPA dictate to the nation is a mistake Through a series of gripping and illuminating anecdotes from his own career the author reveals the EPA to be an agency that under Democrats and Republicans alike delays good rules imposes bad ones and is so big muscle bound and remote that it does unnecessary damage to our society EPA stays in power he says because it enables elected legislators to evade responsibility by hiding behind appointed bureaucrats The best environmental rules those that have done the most good have come when Congress had to take responsibility or from states and localities rather than the EPA With the passion of an authentic environmentalist Schoenbrod makes a sensible plea for bottom up environmental protection now The responsibility for pollution control belongs not in agencies but in legislatures and usually not at the federal level but rather closer to home authority and legitimacy this promises to be one of Rosanvallon's most important books Cato Handbook on Policy Cato Institute, 2005 Details how legislators can return the federal government to the size and scope envisioned by the Founding Fathers Environmental Protection Robert L. Glicksman, 2003 This case book introduces students to fundamentals of environmental law and explains the logic behind the nation's current regulatory and other environmental initiatives Material is presented primarily through an examination of the major environmental statutes to stress the factual scientific and technical contexts of environmental legislation This fourth edition integrates place based approaches to addressing environmental problems and adds chapter opening summaries plus new charts tables and problems Glicksman teaches law at the University of Kansas Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com
