Out Of The Woods A Bird Watchers Year:

Out of the Woods Ora E. Anderson, 2007 Out of the Woods A Bird Watcher's Year is a journey through the seasons and a joyous celebration of growing old In fifty nine essays and poems Ora E Anderson birder bird carver naturalist and nature writer reveals the insights and recollections of a keen eyed observer of nature both human and avian The essays follow the rivers and creeks the highways and little known byways of Appalachia and along the way we become nearly as familiar with its numerous bird plant and animal species as with the author himself These are not the memories of a single year however but of a long lifetime spent immersed in the natural world Out of the Woods presented with humor and passion is an account of a well lived productive and satisfying life The essays offer an intimate portrait of a half century of life on Anderson's beloved old farm more nearly a nature preserve where he lived in harmony with birds and nature and followed the rhythm of the seasons We are invited to share the joys and the disappointments and sorrows inherent in such a life Generously illustrated with Julie Zickefoose's detailed drawings and evocative sketches this book will delight bird watchers artists naturalists backyard gardeners and anyone who is sometimes tempted to take a rutted overgrown and unused path just to see where it leads Birdwatchers' Year Donald Watson, Leo Batten, Jeremy Sorensen, Mike J. Wareing, 2010-11-30 Birdwatchers Year is in essence six years of bird activity and behaviour as recorded month by month by six experienced bird watchers and ornithologists The result is a fascinating compilation of fact anecdote and general observation as seen and noted by the authors that will appeal to birdwatchers at all levels of expertise The habitats Brent Reservoir in NW London a Kentish woodland the Ouse Washes in Cambridgeshire farmland in Derbyshire a mountain region of SW Scotland and an island the Calf of Man encompass a wide and varied range of breeding resident and passage birds but the authors observations are not confined to bird life alone there are comments and asides on many aspects of natural history and wildlife weather and seasons conservation and ecology Each author has brought an individual approach to his diary with the result that they are entertainingly diverse in style content and viewpoint The common factor throughout is an affectionate regard for the subject an intimate knowledge of the habitat and an evident understanding and knowledge of the birds and their environment The diarists are Leo Batten Research Officer at the British Trust for Ornithology Dr Jim Flegg Director of the BTO Jeremy Sorensen RSPB Warden of the Ouse Washes Donald Watson bird artist and past President of the Scottish Ornithologists Club Mike J Wareing farmer Malcolm Wright Warden of the Calf of Man Bird Observatory The diaries are illustrated with line drawings by Ian Willis except for that of Donald Watson which is illustrated by its author The book jacket illustrations are by Ian Willis Year on the Wing Tim Dee, 2009-10-20 Birds those upgiven ghosts who shape our skies and their many styles of flying have inspired us for centuries Tim Dee became enthralled with birds as a young boy and their allure has informed how he perceives time as well as how he sees the world and his place in it Compelling and poetic A Year on the Wing is a month by month account of following these magnificent creatures on land at sea and in the air over the course of one dew dipped year A memoir of the author s life as well as of the birds migrations the book draws on memories of forty years of observing birds as Dee explores the ideas and feelings that birds awaken in their flying breeding and dying A Year on the Wing is also a significant chronicle of Dee s rich reading of a gorgeous literary tradition about birds from Aristotle to Thomas Hardy Dante to Pound Wordsworth to Ted Hughes as well as naturalists writings that train a scientific eye on these elusive creatures With a poet s marvelous commingling of nature and language Dee finds meaning and a fascinating beauty in the quiver of a redstart s tail elegizes the thrilling skydiving stoop of the once endangered now resurgent peregrine falcon and reflects on the nocturnal restlessness of migrant woodcocks that is suggestive of how nature encodes us all A Year on the Wing brings us as close as possible to birds as we seek to understand the unique connection between us and them as well as our separation from them and by extension our estrangement from all of nature Watching birds instills a renewed sense of wonder getting us airborne and expanding our horizons This vicarious liftoff does us good in a way hard to define but incontestably felt It also makes us ever aware of our place on the ground Dee homes in on those moments when the gap narrows between humans and birds when birds freedom gives us our own making our lives more vibrant and alive The first book from an exciting new literary voice this beautifully written memoir celebrates birds and the inspiration they provide through their twice yearly winged migrations
