Out This World South England:

Southern Theories Oliver Mutanga, Tendayi Marovah, 2023-12-19 This book critically explores Global South perspectives examining marginalised voices and issues whilst challenging the supremacy of Global North perspectives in literature The unique value of this book lies in its extensive coverage of various Southern challenges including disaster management climate change communication resilience gender education and disability It also underscores the relevance of indigenous philosophies such as animism Buen Vivir Buddhism Confucianism Daoism Neozapatism Qi vitality Taoism and Ubuntu Stemming from regions as diverse as Sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America these philosophies are brought into public discourse By demonstrating their practicality in designing intervention programs and influencing policy making the book fills a critical gap in global Southern literature while promoting context specific knowledge for improving well being in the Global South contexts This book's content resonates with a diverse audience encompassing students academics researchers NGOs and policymakers from postcolonial states in the Global South and those from Global North countries Furthermore it is highly relevant to communities within the Global North that mirror the Global South those grappling with equity issues for indigenous populations It has a versatile appeal that transcends disciplinary boundaries encompassing cultural studies sociology international development philosophy and postcolonial studies thus making it accessible to all educational levels It holds particular interest for those in development studies indigenous studies government departments globally international organisations and universities worldwide

The Overseas Chinese of South East Asia I. Rae, M. Witzel, 2008-01-17 The 60million Chinese who live outside of China have long been an economic powerhouse in their own right Managing in South East Asia is not like managing anywhere else This book describes their communities and environments in which they work and emphasises the need for cultural understanding as a pre requisite for business success

World War Two Jeremy Black, 2004-11-23 Cutting through over half a century of historical build up this new and convincing account of World War II uses a global perspective to explain the complicated course in military terms Black a distinguished military historian bucks the current trend to demilitarise and gives due weight to the campaigns and battles that made up the war In doing so he challenges common interpretations and includes new insights to make this one of the most exciting new histories of the Second World War Covering all the main areas of conflict the chronological approach includes analysis of attacks at land air and sea and a comparison of military resources The focus is always operational but social cultural and political aspects are also included Providing a crucial counterweight to previous histories Jeremy Black's World War Two offers fresh insights into operations at the Eastern Front and during the war against Japan

The Economic History of Central, East and South-East Europe Matthias Morys, 2020-12-29 The collapse of communism in Central East and South East Europe CESEE led to great hopes for the region and for Europe A quarter of a century on the picture is mixed in many CESEE countries the transformation process is incomplete and the economic catch up has taken longer than anticipated The current situation has highlighted the need for a better understanding of the long term political and economic implications of the Central East and South East European historical experience This thematically organised text offers a clear and comprehensive guide to the economic history of CESEE from 1800 to the present day Bringing together authors from both East and West the book also draws on the cutting edge research of a new generation of scholars from the CESEE region Presenting a thoroughly modern overview of the history of the region the text will be invaluable to students of economic history and CESEE area studies
