☐ Service Meeting:

Song 88

15 min: Family Worship That Refreshes. Interview a family regarding their family worship. Of what does their program consist? How do they determine what to discuss? What tools available on jw.org have they used? How has their program helped them in the ministry? How do they prevent other activities from disrupting their schedule? How have they benefited from their program of family worship?

15 min: “Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers.” Discussion. Consider two or three potential conversation stoppers that publishers may encounter, and invite comments on how we might respond. Remind publishers that they will have an opportunity to relate experiences during the week of April 7.

Song 97 and Prayer

Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers

Why Important: Imagine that you know that a natural disaster is imminent. People will die unless they flee to safety. You go to a neighbor’s home to warn him, but he interrupts you, saying that he is busy. Surely, you would not quickly abandon your efforts to help him! Many in our territory turn us away, not realizing the life-saving value of our message. At the time of our visit, perhaps they are preoccupied. (Matt. 24:37-39) Or maybe they have been prejudiced by untrue rumors. (Matt. 11:18, 19) They might assume that we are no different from the religions that have produced bad fruitage. (2 Pet. 2:1, 2) If the householder initially is not interested, we should not be quick to give up.

How to Do It:

- Before preaching from house to house, take a few moments to think about potential conversation stoppers that you may encounter and consider how to respond.
- If the householder presents an objection, gently try to continue the conversation. Perhaps you can do that by commending him. For example, if he says that he has his own religion, you might reply, “I was hoping to find someone like you who has an interest in spiritual things.” Sometimes acknowledging the householder’s feelings or circumstances will enable you to continue giving a witness. For instance, if he says that he is busy, you might say: “I understand. But before I leave, I would like to give you this.” Another option is to ask a question if the householder says that he is not interested. You could say, “Do you mean that you are not interested in the Bible, or is it religion in general that does not interest you?”
- Use good judgment. Remember that Jehovah does not force people to listen. (Deut. 30:19) Everyone must carry his own load of spiritual responsibility. (Gal. 6:5) If the householder is adamant, it is best to take our leave. By demonstrating respect for his feelings, we may open the door for another publisher to give a witness in the future. —1 Pet. 3:15.

Try This During the Month:

- When you encounter a potential conversation stopper, after leaving the householder, discuss with your partner how you might have responded in a better way.

The European Convention on Human Rights and General International Law Anne van Aaken, Iulia Motoc, 2018-10-03 The European Court of Human Rights is one of the main players in interpreting international human rights law where issues of general international law arise While developing its own jurisprudence for the protection of human rights in the European context it remains embedded in the developments of general international law However because the Court does not always follow general international law closely and develops its own doctrines which are in turn influential for national courts as well as other international courts and tribunals a feedback loop of influence occurs This book explores the interaction including the problems arising in the context of human rights between the European Convention on Human Rights and general international law It contributes to ongoing debates on the fragmentation and convergence of international law from the perspective of international judges as well as academics Some of the chapters suggest reconciling methods and convergence while others stress the danger of fragmentation The focus is on specific topics which have posed special problems namely sources interpretation jurisdiction state responsibility and immunity Children in Police Custody Miranda Bevan, 2023-12-05 Children in Police Custody shines a light on the hidden experiences of children in police detention in England and Wales An episode in police custody is the single most common sustained experience of the criminal justice system for children Yet child suspects have previously been largely overlooked in criminological research Drawing on the first comprehensive study in England and Wales to review the police custody process from the perspective of children the chapters trace the child's journey from arrest through detention and interview to release or remand Adopting a rights based approach this work investigates whether the present legal framework provides effective protection for child suspects Utilising the detailed insights provided by young participants in the research and supplemented by the author's fieldwork this analysis reveals the complex challenges facing children's legal agency in the adversarial setting of the custody block In so doing it evaluates the capacity of the available protections to enable children's participation in that setting A parallel criminological exploration examines the intersecting adversities experienced by child suspects and the complex power dynamics they navigate in police custody to arrive at an understanding of the particular harms of police detention for children and their longer term impact The book closes with a call for a retrenchment in the use of police custody for children and a reappraisal of how those who must be detained should be supported to enable their effective participation in the criminal justice process both in custody and beyond Minerals Yearbook Mines Bureau, Geological Survey, Interior Department, 2018-04-19 The region of Europe and Central Eurasia defined in this volume encompasses territory that extends from the Atlantic Coast of Europe to the Pacific Coast of the Russian Federation It includes the British Isles Iceland and Greenland a self governing part of the Kingdom of Denmark Included are mineral commodity outlook tables plus global overview research for particularly commodities within a specific regions countries are presented throughout the text
