five years earlier In a series of character driven chapters Roger Hermiston a former deputy editor on Radio 4 s Today and the author of The Greatest Traitor tells the behind closed doors story of the key figures and key ministries delving deep into the archives to bring to life a Cabinet that was both the brain and the conscience of the nation Our Longest Days Sandra Koa Wing,2008 Chronicling a Crisis Ed Beck,Darren D. Chase,Matthew C. Hendley,Ann Traitor,2023-11-01 Chronicling a Crisis is a powerful primary source collection compiled during the peak of the COVID pandemic between spring 2020 and spring 2021 This upstate New York college was the only school in the state that had to send home all its students twice due to COVID which attracted international media attention This book was inspired by the UK s Mass Observation Project from the 1930s which drew on the war time diaries of ordinary British citizens to track the impact of World War II on their lives With over two hundred blog entries from students faculty and staff including diary reflections poems pictures and thought pieces this volume lays bare the grief frustration fear resilience and upheavals of this tumultuous period This book will be of interest for students of New York history American history and the digital humanities as well as general readers interested in understanding the impact of the COVID pandemic on universities and their students The Diaries of Nella Last Patricia Malcolmson,Robert Malcolmson,2012-09-27 The complete collection of the diaries of Nella Last I can never understand how the scribbles of such an ordinary person can possibly have value So wrote Nella Last in her diary on 2 September 1949 More than sixty years on tens of thousands of people have read and enjoyed three volumes of her vivid and moving diaries written during the Second World War and its aftermath as part of the Mass Observation project and the basis for BAFTA winning drama Housewife 49 starring Victoria Wood The Diaries of Nella Last brings together into a single volume the best of Nella s prolific outpourings including a great deal of new unpublished material from the war years Capturing the everyday trials and horrors of wartime Britain and the nation s transition into peacetime and beyond Nella s touching and often humorous narrative provides an invaluable historical portrait of what daily life was like for ordinary people in the 1940s and 1950s Outwardly Nella s life was commonplace but behind this mask were a penetrating mind and a lively pen As David Kynaston said on Radio 4 Nella Last will come to be seen as one of the major twentieth century English diarists A People's History of World War II Marc Favreau,2011-09-20 The most destructive war in human history World War II continues to generate an astonishingly rich trove of historical material writings and first person recollections which are essential to any appreciation of this most pivotal of historical events A People s History of World War II brings the full range of human experience during World War II to life through some of the most vivid accounts and images available anywhere This concise and accessible volume includes first person interviews by Studs Terkel rare archival photographs from the Office of War Information collection propaganda comics from Theodore Geisel Dr Seuss narratives of wartime experiences from writers including historian Howard Zinn civil rights activist Robert L Carter and celebrated French author Marguerite Duras and selections from the writings of some of the world s leading historians of the war including John Dower Philippe Burrin David

Wyman and Eric Hobsbawm Advertising and Propaganda in World War II David Clampin, 2014-03-21 The Blitz the period of Nazi bombing campaigns on civilian Britain during World War II was a formative period for British national identity In this groundbreaking book David Clampin looks at the images campaigns and slogans which helped to form the fabled Blitz spirit powerfully echoed in Winston Churchill's speeches Because advertisers attempted to capitalise on war time patriotism Clampin's unique focus on advertising provides a visually rich seam of new information on the everyday war and makes an enormous contribution to the debate on people's experiences of war and nationalism Using a remarkable and hitherto unseen range of primary source material advertisements in the press slogans and posters this work will reshape the contested meanings of the Home Front opening up cultural history discourses on gender and nationalism Advertising and Propaganda in World War II is essential reading for historians of World War II as well as students and scholars of Media Studies and Communication Studies Cheer Up, Mate! Alan Weeks, 2011-10-03 Cheer Up Mate is a compilation of comical tales and anecdotes from World War Two Between 1939 and 1945 the world witnessed what is generally agreed to be the most horrific war in history Millions died and millions more were physically or psychologically wounded by the conflict Yet amidst the pain and devastation people were not only able to survive they also managed to maintain a sense of humour For some it was precisely this ability to laugh at their misfortunes and those of the other side that enabled them to soldier on This was especially true of the British a nation whose reaction to more or less anything up to and including someone's house being bombed to rubble tended to be never mind have a cup of tea This Blitz Spirit is perhaps best summed up by Mona Lott one of the characters in Tommy Handley's radio show It's That Man Again the show's title itself being a comical reference to Hitler it's being so cheerful as keeps me going In this collection of stories which covers the armed forces and civilians from both sides Alan Weeks demonstrates how humour can survive even in the most unlikely of circumstances The War in the West: A New History James Holland, 2017-05-04 From Hitler's invasion of Russia America's entry into the conflict and the devastating Thousand Bomber Raids over Germany to the long grinding struggle in the deserts of North Africa and the crucial Battle of the Atlantic the middle passage of the Second World War was all about turning back the Nazi tide These catalytic moments would come to define the course of the war and its outcome They encompass the most vicious fighting the most hair raising strategy and the most breathtaking bravery Across the battlefronts on land sea and air to the streets fields and factories of Britain America Africa and Europe Holland shows in his own dramatic and compelling style how the fortunes of war were changed and what happened when the Allies were finally able to fight back Impeccably researched and superbly written Holland's fascinating saga offers a mixture of captivating new research and well considered revisionism Observer Exceptional Holland's success is built in part on an engaging writing style and in part on a genuinely fresh approach to events Wall Street Journal The best of the new generation of WW2 historians Sebastian Faulks
