Out Of The Scientists Garden A Story Of Water And Food:

Out of the Scientist's Garden Richard Stirzaker, 2010-01-27 Out of the Scientist's Garden is written for anyone who wants to understand food and water a little better for those growing vegetables in a garden food in a subsistence plot or crops on vast irrigated plains It is also for anyone who has never grown anything before but has wondered how we will feed a growing population in a world of shrinking resources Although a practicing scientist in the field of water and agriculture the author has written in story form accessible to a wide audience about the drama of how the world feeds itself The book starts in his own fruit and vegetable garden exploring the how and why questions about the way things grow before moving on to stories about soil rivers aquifers and irrigation The book closes with a brief history of agriculture how the world feeds itself today and how to think through some of the big conundrums of modern food production Out of the Scientist's Garden

Richard Stirzaker, 2010 Although a practising scientist in the field of water and agriculture the author has written in story form accessible to a wide audience about the drama of how the world feeds itself The book starts in his own fruit and vegetable garden exploring the how and why questions about the way things grow before moving on to stories about soil rivers aquifers and irrigation The book closes with a brief history of agriculture how the world feeds itself today and how to think through some of the big conundrums of modern food production Publisher description We cannot continue like this Attie S. van Niekerk, Sytse Strijbos, 2022-02-07 The book is based on the view that the present trajectory of modern development cannot continue as it is now because it is ecologically unsustainable it continues to enlarge the gap between rich and poor and the decolonisation movement has drawn our attention again to the specific role of religion culture and value in human affairs and the need for a robust element of indigenisation and contextualisation This book is strongly focused on the context of Africa with two chapters that are written by authors from the Netherlands for the purpose of presenting a North South dialogue The book contains a reflection on approaches followed in building sustainable human communities in general and reflection on specific efforts to solve sustainability issues It seeks to integrate academic reflection and insights gained from practical involvement with sustainability issues in local communities and low income households with
