Out Of Bounds When Scholarship Athletes Become Academic Scholars:

Out of Bounds Jabari Mahiri, Derek Van Rheenen, 2010 Out of Bounds explores the trajectories and challenges of exceptional men and women athletes who later became outstanding academic scholars The book reports findings from participatory qualitative research and problematizes ways we have come to think about the separation and integration of athletic and academic practices embodied in both institutions and individuals and reflected through intersecting categories and experiences of race gender and social class Through the provocative and surprising narratives of gifted athletes who became prolific scholars this book offers significantly new ways of thinking about the connections contradictions and possibilities of sports and schools

Student Athletes: Merging Academics And Sports Frank P Jozsa, Jr, 2018-10-19 Applying concepts data and other information from various sources in the literature when and where appropriate the book reveals and examines the behavior contribution and impact of student athletes SAs on campuses of American colleges and universities It highlights in part SAs progress academically while they devoted time and resources to participate in one or more of their schools individual and or team sports in Division I II and or III of the National Collegiate Athletic Association or in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics and or National Junior College Athletic Association

Envisioning Scholar-Practitioner Collaborations Derek Van Rheenen, Jean Marie DeOrnellas, 2018-01-01 Envisioning Scholar Practitioner Collaborations Building Communities of Practice in Education and Sport presents a collection of case studies of collaborations between scholars and practitioners dedicated to both the generation of new knowledge and innovative best practices at the nexus of education and sport This inaugural text in a series sponsored by the Research Focus on Education and Sport Special Interest Group of the American Educational Research Association seeks to reveal a number of educational spaces in which this critical work takes place The volume comprising ten unique collaborations outlines the important intellectual and social work of scholar practitioners at the intersection of institutional sport and education at a variety of sites both in school and in non school settings Each of these chapters has a unique set of research questions programmatic goals and findings For the purpose of this book however contributors have described the nature of their collaborations for whom and by whom these collaborations are forged such that the findings are presented as lessons learned from the process of collaboration This book reveals educational spaces where scholars and practitioners are collaborating and generating new understandings of the world we know We characterize this effort as mutually beneficial and respectful engendering a vision of hope exploration and educational transformation

Learning from Urban Immigrant Youth About Academic Literacies Jie Park, 2018-05-15 This book reports on a two year long qualitative literacy case study of the academic literacies of first and second generation immigrant youth in an afterschool tutoring program in South Bronx New York Through transcripts of tutoring sessions interview data and youths written work each chapter highlights how youth interpreted and navigated various school assignments and what resources and perspectives they brought to unpacking the meaning and significance of texts and disciplinary discourses By focusing on the immigrant youth themselves and not on the teaching that happens or does not happen inside classrooms this volume provides a unique and much needed vantage point to understanding the academic literacies and engagement of urban immigrant youth
