PC Mag ,2002-05-07 PCMag com is a leading authority on technology delivering Labs based independent reviews of the latest products and services Our expert industry analysis and practical solutions help you make better buying decisions and get more from technology Pre-Commerce Bob Pearson,2011-02-08 Ideas for leaders to engage directly with customers to shape their brand and marketplace success Since its debut E commerce has been centered on the transaction which represents less than one percent of the time we spend online Now we are entering the era of Pre Commerce where customers make their own decision to buy or support a brand before the transaction Pre Commerce explains how the exploding use of social media channels has fundamentally changed the way customers go about making their purchasing decisions how they educate themselves and why they choose to support certain brands above others It shows what executives must do to re create the way their companies interact with and learn from their customers employees and competitors It includes exclusive interviews and anecdotes Pearson has conducted or experienced with numerous influential C suite executives during his time as leader of Dell s global social media team and as a consultant to Fortune 1000 companies worldwide Offers a step by step process for leaders to apply this knowledge to begin transforming their companies right now

Begins with a foreword from Mark Addicks Chief Marketing Officer General Mills Over 25 Fortune 500 executives interviewed including special side bar interviews with Michael Dell and Marc Benioff Explores the concept of Pre commerce the customer s decision making happens well before a transaction takes place and continues after the transaction representing 99% of time spent online often outside a company s reach today Shows how to build internal employee networks and how to take your first and most important steps to integrate social media throughout your company Pearson reveals that the best ideas are often free and the technology needed is rarely a cost issue Instead it s a matter of the top executive deciding to adopt a new way of engaging directly with its customers Protecting EU Consumers in Internet of Things Ecosystems Christof Koolen,2025-10-21 The number of devices being connected to the internet is growing rapidly This trend referred to as the Internet of Things IoT reflects the gradual transformation of everyday objects into smart devices These smart devices are capable of collecting data from their surroundings and sharing that data over the internet As a result the development of the IoT raises extensive legal questions from a consumer protection perspective First the functionality of smart devices challenges consumer autonomy and the average consumer s ability to make well informed transactional decisions Second concerns remain about consumer choice as consumers can t easily switch due to interoperability limitations Third consumer privacy is threatened by the data driven nature of the IoT Protecting EU Consumers in Internet of Things Ecosystems explores solutions to these challenges by critically analyzing the interplay between EU consumer law EU competition law and EU data privacy law aiming to balance innovation and consumer protection in IoT ecosystems At a time when society must question how the benefits of IoT can be harnessed for the greater good rather than posing a threat to consumers businesses and governments this volume offers valuable insights for academics policymakers businesses and anyone interested in understanding the impact of technology on our daily lives "More and more plugged" Social Representations of the New Economy Alexandra Steinberg,2002-08-12 Inhaltsangabe Abstract This study set out to explore representations of the new economy amongst business professionals in Internet enabled business Going beyond the new economy hype the study was aimed at understanding the ways that business professionals make sense of the contemporary economy In doing so a social psychological perspective was taken allowing multiple realities to emerge Behavioural economists and economic psychologists conceptualisations of economic life are challenged They hinge on the presumption that individuals act independently from their social environment and deviate as cognitive misers from a single legitimate economic rationality By contrast this study drew on a social constructionist framework More specifically it employed social representations theory Moscovici 1961 76 Moscovici 1984 which rehabilitated common sense as a legitimate form of knowledge The theory of social representations as a theory of knowledge proved as a sensitive and more sophisticated tool to analyse contemporary economy in its manifestations in professionals common sense It is suggested to view the notion of common sense independently of role constellations Given this framework this study took a snapshot of the contemporary representational field of the new economy amongst business professionals Particularly the study was focused on exploring the taken for granted and beliefs underpinning discourses and symbols Data from semi structured interviews and an in depth analysis of Web sites highlighted new findings Business professionals have constructed symbolic meaning centring around the notion of interaction Economic and social beliefs were not separated Interaction is the new economy The new and seemingly unlimited digital connectivity was perceived as a challenge and triggered a symbolic creation of a new space the faceless space of interaction Meanings around the faceless space of interaction are constructed in strong contrast to physical proximity and shared experience in communities the face to face space From numerous interlocking discourses and images a core set of values emerged at the heart of the representational field deeply embedded in professionals common sense Representations of new technology of business professionals skills and roles in the new economy of space and time were informed by symbolic coping with the challenges posed by the faceless space This was evident in situative
