Mockingbirds At Jerusalem A Poetic Memoir:

Mockingbirds at Jerusalem Rudolph Lewis, 2014-11-14 Mockingbirds at Jerusalem A Poetic Memoir By Rudolph Lewis

Introduction This poetic memoir recalls the place of my childhood which was informed by a life of integrity and dignity character qualities of maternal grandparents who taught me a respect for words stories that shored up life diminished by ideas of separation and inferiority It was a rural hamlet named Jerusalem founded in 1870 in Virginia s poorest county Sussex It offered grudgingly little in fields and forests vision warped by slavery and Jim Crow This distorted place could and will never be one of permanence for a smart black boy He will always seek to fulfill his self in other spaces Jerusalem generates exiles Beginning mid 1960s I sought housing with indoor toilets and tap water and joy in America s urban centers and in a neo colonial Congo in New Orleans with poets artists musicians educators and priests I worked as porter teacher journalist and librarian studied modern art listened to jazzmen and passed out words against war and injustice during the American war against the Viet Cong When my exiled world became too cold and depressing to bear I returned home to my grandmother s voice her stories and songs Most of these poems were first written in 2006 and have been in revision for seven years They begin with a poem to my grandfather William Tinka Lewis who raised me as his son and died in 1970 There are many poems that call up my grandmother Ella Lewis whom I called Mama and from whom I learned our family history In poor health she was suffering loss of weight and dementia Her daughter Annie made her comfortable in that home she and Tinka built in the late 1950s The last family member of her generation Mama had seen two of her daughters pass before her and in the spring of 2008 both her son in law and then the daughter that bore me also passed She was too ill to travel to Baltimore for either funeral And in 2009 I became ill and she passed that December a month after I married Yvonne Terry I attempt to capture some of that disruptive beauty in these poems I owe an eternal debt to my maternal grandparents and their Jerusalem and all that made it live our kinfolks the dirt roads the church community Creath school our neighbors the gardens barnyards and their pigs mules and chickens the weather dark purple nights with its stars In this memoir I ve tried to translate that beauty horror and wonder and its end into a contemporary idiom others may know I spent much of my time at the woodshed with Bobo Cat if not chopping wood meditating reading and taking notes I read the Autobiography of Amiri Baraka Aldon Nielsen s Black Chant and Nina Simone s I Put a Spell on You Some of the poems reflect those readings like Showdown at the Five Spot and I Put a Spell on We The memoir recalls also Nathaniel Turner the prophet of Southampton who among others began the continuing tradition of the week long August revival Several poems sketch out the tragic death and funeral of Carter a multiracial child the sadness of his mother and stepfather Ode for Walls an ironical symbolical poem brings the memoir to a close
