Models Of The Eucharist:

Models of the Eucharist, Second Edition Irwin, Kevin W., 2020 In this book updated with the texts of the third edition of the Roman Missal Kevin Irwin reflects on the jewel in the crown of Catholicism the celebration of the Eucharist His book theological pastoral and contemporary is essentially concerned with issues about the Eucharist that face us today decades after the truly historic and unprecedented revisions that took after the Second Vatican Council Some of these concerns are the result of unforeseen developments about the Eucharist resulting from other factors for example the decline in numbers of clergy which has led in some places to Sunday celebrations without the Mass Other concerns arise from a lack of proper catechesis about the Mass and a keen desire to understand why and how the Eucharist is at the center of Catholic life In addition to being expressly theological this book is also expressly pastoral in that it is a reflection on the life lived by the church as it enacts the Eucharist and seeks to live out what the Eucharist celebrates The book is aimed at the audience of educated Catholics who seek a deeper appreciation of what the Eucharist is and who want to appropriate that understanding in the way they live their lives This book will be of particular interest to pastoral ministers both those present and those in training and the communities of faith whom they serve

An Incarnational Model of the Eucharist James M. Arcadi, 2018-05-31 The Eucharist is at the heart of Christian worship and at the heart of the Eucharist are the curious phrases This is my body and This is my blood James M Arcadi offers a constructive proposal for understanding Christ's presence in the Eucharist that draws on contemporary conceptual resources and is faithful to the history of interpretation He locates his proposal along a spectrum of Eucharistic theories Arcadi explores the motif of God's presence related to divine omnipresence and special presence in holy places which undergirds a biblical theological proposal concerning Christ's presence Utilizing recent work in speech act theory Arcadi probes the acts of consecration and renaming in their biblical and liturgical contexts A thorough examination of recent work in Christology leads to an action model of the Incarnation that borrows the notion of enabling externalism from philosophy of mind These threads undergird a model of Christ's presence in the Eucharist

Building a Eucharistic Pedagogy for the Presbyterian Church of Korea Hyoungh Seop Shin, 2013-04-29 Based on the critical conversations between education liturgy sociology and theology this book suggests an alternative eucharistic pedagogy for the Presbyterian Church of Korea by reforming eucharistic and curricular practices with attention to students specific local contexts This process includes the formulation of the definition of the new eucharistic pedagogy the reconceptualization of concepts regarding the eucharistic pedagogy and five steps as pedagogical strategies for a new eucharistic pedagogy for the Presbyterian Church of Korea including pedagogical guidelines for teachers and students This book will open the door for further educational and liturgical discussions of the work of contextualization in churches around the world Even though this study investigates a contextual pedagogy limited to the PCK this task needs attention and study in a larger context beyond the PCK The gospel is the worldwide truth that cannot be limited to a certain culture but becomes incarnated into each local culture Therefore this kind of contextual investigation between the gospel and culture will not be optional but imperative to all churches

The Ministry of Women in the New Testament Dorothy A. Lee, 2021-02-16 Respected scholar Dorothy Lee considers evidence from the New Testament and early church to show that women's ministry is confirmed by the biblical witness Her comprehensive examination explores the roles women played in the Gospels and the Pauline corpus with a particular focus on passages that have been used in the past to limit women's ministry She argues that women in the New Testament were not only valued as disciples but also given leadership roles which has implications for the contemporary church

Women Priests, Symbolic Violence, and Symbolic Resistance Sharon Jagger, 2025-02-26 This book explores from a feminist sociological viewpoint the ways gender is constructed in the priesthood in the Church of England and the political emotional and spiritual resources generated by women priests in their resistance praxis against a discriminating structure Despite the increasing numbers of women being ordained the Church continues to structurally support and legitimise the view that the priesthood should be exclusively male and women priests still experience gender discrimination and or differentiation Drawing on Bourdieu's notion of symbolic violence the book aims to fill a gap in the research literature by showing how women priests do not necessarily misrecognise or collude in their domination but engage in hidden resistances and subversions Based on empirical research the study reveals that whilst there are barriers to protesting and complaining in conventional ways there are also significant resistances in how women priests perform their role The themes addressed are relevant for sociologists of religion and scholars of gender and women's studies as well as those with an interest in theology and Christian ministry

Hinfelaar,2025-02-10 Bemba Speaking Women of Zambia traces the often painful religious changes that have occurred among the Bemba speaking women of Zambia since the last decade of the 19th century It argues that the religious tenets of the traditional domestic cult had already been undermined by the centralising tendencies of the merchant princes before the arrival of the missionaries who based their church structures on the concept of the Bemba hierarchy The body of the book describes with great authority the creative redress of the women as channelled through independent Christian movements and through the mission churches themselves These chapters are especially important as it is shown in the last part of the book that these genuine reactions of the women could well offer material for genuine inculturation
