Modern Christian Thought Twentieth Century V 2:

Modern Christian Theology Christopher Ben Simpson, 2020-01-09 Christopher Ben Simpson tells the story of modern Christian theology against the backdrop of the history of modernity itself. The book tells the many ways that theology became modern while seeing how modernity arose in no small part from theology. These intertwined stories progress through four parts. In Part I Emerging Modernity Simpson goes from the beginnings of modernity in the late Middle Ages through the Protestant Reformation and Renaissance Humanism to the creative tension between Enlightenment and Awakenings of the eighteenth century. Part II The Long Nineteenth Century presents the great movements and figures arising out of these creative tensions from Romanticism and Schleiermacher to Ritschlianism and Vatican I. Part III Twentieth Century Crisis and Modernity proceeds through the revolutionary theologies of the period of the World Wars such as that of Karl Barth or Nouvelle Théologie. This part includes a thorough section on modern Eastern Orthodox theology. Finally Part IV The Late Modern Supernova lays out the diverse panoply of recent theologies from the various liberation theologies to the revisionist the secular, the postliberal and the postsecular. Designed for classroom use, this volume includes the following features: boxes, charts, diagrams, visual organizations of the information presented included throughout, e.g. lists of key points, visual organizations of systematic ideas in a given thinker, lists of significant works, lists of significant dates, brief outlines of the basic structure of some major theological works, both a one-page chapter title table of the contents and an expanded multipage table of contents, chapter at a glance overview outline at the beginning of each chapter, specific references to secondary works and key primary works in English translation at the end of chapters.

spiritualities Religions in the Modern World Linda Woodhead, 2002 This comprehensive guide offers an unrivalled introduction to recent work in the study of religion from the religious traditions of Asia and the West to new forms of religion and spirituality such as New Age With an historical introduction to each religion and detailed analysis of its place in the modern world Religions in the Modern World is ideal for newcomers to the study of religion It incorporates case studies and anecdotes text extracts chapter menus and end of chapter summaries glossaries and annotated further reading sections Topics covered include religion colonialism and postcolonialism religious nationalism women and religion religion and globalization religion and authority the rise of new spiritualities The Great War and the Death of God Charles A. O'Connor, 2014-04-07 A compelling analysis of how World War I spurred the rise of atheism and the subsequent effect on Western theology philosophy literature and art The catastrophic Great War left humanity in a world no longer trustworthy and reassuring but seemingly meaningless and indifferent Instead of redressing humanity's cosmic alienation postwar Western culture abandoned its concern for cosmic meaning lost its confidence in human reason and enabled the scientific worldview of neo Darwinian materialism to emerge and eventually dominate the Western mind According to the proponents of that worldview science is the only source of genuine truth nature is the product of a blind evolutionary process and reality at bottom is just physics and chemistry Thus God is dead and continued belief in a transcendentally purposeful universe is intellectually indefensible and either disingenuous or delusional By turning away from the eternal questions about the nature of reality Western culture effectively ceded unwarranted credibility and prominence to neo Darwinian materialism including its recently strident New Atheism O Connor revisits the 20th century's journey from Nietzsche's declaration of the death of God to the rise of materialism as the dominant worldview of western intelligentsia We live in a world that has largely expelled both mind and meaning from the citadels of serious intellectual pursuit and O Connor's book is a fascinating and scholarly expedition into the how and why of that troubling development Carter Phipps author of Evolutionaries I found this topic to be top rate The book is well researched and conceived nicely narrated and analyzed and an original body of inquiry into a challenging fascinating intellectual tradition Ronald M Johnson Professor Emeritus of American History Georgetown University Christians and Muslims Hugh Goddard, 2003-09-02 One of the most persistent problems in Christian Muslim relations over the centuries has been the tendency by each to judge the other by standards and criteria not used in assessing itself Goddard argues that such is no longer admissible and proceeds to offer a number of useful insights Theology as Construction of Piety David T. Ngong, 2013-12-10 This book argues that a primary purpose of theological discourses is to construct piety or spirituality If this is the case theologians need to constantly inquire into the kind of piety or spirituality which their work may construct Drawing from some important moments in the development of Christian theology such as the development of the Christian doctrine of God in the early church the role of material things in the Christianity of medieval Europe some elements of contemporary postliberal theology and the theology of inculturation in Africa the book argues that theological discourses that appear to be orthodox and innocuous may actually construct forms of piety that may diminish human flourishing The book therefore calls for an ethics of theology intended to ensure that the theologies we construct help in developing a piety that is conducive to human flourishing in the modern world especially for Africans who have suffered and continue to suffer unspeakable dehumanization The book proposes that a theology that may contribute to the flourishing of Africans in the modern world is one that constructs an interdisciplinary spirituality that takes both the spiritual and the scientific seriously

Theology in the Present Age Christopher Ben Simpson, Steven D. Cone, 2013-08-23 This volume of essays centers on the theme of doing Christian theology in the present postmodern context a consistent theme of the teaching of John D Castelein The work will celebrate and honor John s years of service by representing reflections of his teaching in the thought of his students and colleagues The essays range over such topics as theological reflections on the postmodern philosophical themes the relations between Christian theology and culture the contributions of philosophical hermeneutics for Christian theology and the challenges of engaging in ministry in a postmodern context The seventeen contributors to the volume are former students and both present and former colleagues involved in various ministries be they in a college setting or in a local church

George Lindbeck Shaun C. Brown, 2022-07-15 George Lindbeck wrote one of the most often read and debated theological works of the twentieth century The Nature of Doctrine Despite the work s wide readership few read the book considering his work as an ecumenist In addition few have read Lindbeck s other writings This work seeks to remedy this situation by providing 1 a context for understanding The Nature of Doctrine 2 a corrective to misreadings of Lindbeck s work 3 an introduction to his broader corpus and 4 some possible ways in which Lindbeck s work can contribute to future ecumenical discussion and to Christian theological practice more broadly It will do so by focusing upon several key roles or aspects of Lindbeck s life and thought from his understanding of his own Lutheran background and his participation in Lutheran Catholic dialogue to his training in medieval philosophy and theology and later work on the church as Israel
