Modern Architecture Representation And Reality:

Modern Architecture Neil Levine, 2009 In this handsome book esteemed architectural historian Neil Levine investigates for the first time the complex history of representation the use and meaning of architectural signifiers from the 18th through the 20th century Using the lens of a continuous theoretical argument Levine provides a detailed survey and critical analysis of major works by a host of modern architects including tienne Louis Boull e Nicholas Hawksmoor Louis Kahn Henri Labrouste Augustus Welby Pugin Karl Friedrich Schinkel John Soane Louis Sullivan Mies van der Rohe Eug ne Viollet le Duc and Frank Lloyd Wright Levine posits that all modern architects much like visual artists have had to grapple with issues of representation in their work Interweaving influential examples from outside the scope of modern architecture Levine traces the history of representation in architecture and in writings on architecture both within each architect s oeuvre and throughout the centuries discussed The book features previously unpublished images many created for this publication and it addresses a variety of specific cases while offering an original and panoramic view of the history of architecture Beautifully written and accessible Modern Architecture is destined to become a classic Publisher s description Nelson Goodman

and Modern Architecture Kasper Lægging, 2024-07-19 This book orchestrates a convergence of two discourses from the 1960s Nelson Goodman s aesthetic theory on one side and critiques of modern architecture articulated by figures like Peter Blake Charles Jencks and Robert Venturi Denise Scott Brown on the other Grounded in Goodman s aesthetic theory the book explores his conceptual framework within the context of modern architecture At the heart of the investigation lies Goodman s concept of exemplification While his notion of denotation pertains to representational elements often ornaments in architecture exemplification accentuates specific formal properties at the expense of others including color spatial orientation transparency seriality and the like Supplemented by findings from phenomenology the book traces these effects in buildings notably those by Ludwig Mies van der Rohe Walter Gropius Le Corbusier and Frank Lloyd Wright all key figures in the critiques of modern architecture Employing Goodman s framework the book aims to address accusations of emptiness and alienation directed at modern architecture in the postwar era It illustrates that modern architecture symbolizes aesthetically in a fundamentally different way than architecture from earlier periods This book will be of interest to architects artists researchers and students in architecture architectural history theory cultural theory philosophy and aesthetics

Modern Architecture Adam Sharr, 2018 Adam Sharr tells the story of how modern architecture developed and produced its powerful cultural images Considering the new building materials and techniques which shaped the movement such as innovations in steel and concrete and the advent of air conditioning he concludes by asking whether contemporary architecture remains modern at heart The Architectural Representation of Islam Eric Roose, 2025-10-01 This book is a study of Dutch mosque designs objects of heated public debate Until now studies of diaspora mosque designs have largely consisted of normative architectural critiques that reject the ubiquitous domes and minarets as hampering further Islamic architectural evolution The Architectural Representation of Islam Muslim Commissioned Mosque Design in The Netherlands represents a clear break with the architectural critical narrative and meticulously analyzes twelve design processes for Dutch mosques It shows that patrons by consciously selecting steering and replacing their architects have much more influence on their mosques than has been generally assumed Through the careful transformation of specific building elements from Islamic architectural history to a new context they literally aim to construct the ultimate Islam Their designs thus evolve not in opposition to Dutch society but to those versions of Islam that they hold to be false Design Representation Gabriela Goldschmidt, William L. Porter, 2007-05-28 there is a global network of academics researchers and methodologists who will buy this book or want it in their institute libraries Prof John Harbraken As the field of human computer interaction grows this book is likely to be a basic resource Prof Chuck Eastman Design representation is necessary for all design activity You will gain a guide to both theory and practical application in this discussion of representation as it occurs during the process of design Goldschmidt and Porter give you perspectives on representational issues in design that are both informative and evocative of further inquiry The unique interdisciplinary approach brings a new dimension to the study of representation benefiting the global network of researchers students and practitioners in all areas of design Rather than addressing the larger framework directly a series of smaller case studies are presented each dealing with aspects of representation in architecture and engineering Binding together historical cultural cognitive social and technological perspectives eliminates the need for further reading Innovative research methods based on numerous well illustrated examples will leave you with new ideas to build on International contributors focus on worldwide research activities offering you more than just an expansion of a single viewpoint Design Representation delves into the common roots of representation in all design disciplines through case studies historical investigations theoretical constructs and programming If you are involved in any design activity this will be a truly exciting addition to your bookshelf Decoding Theoryspeak Enn Ots,2010-09-20

Existentialism Urbanism Aporia Deontic Tabula Rasa Hyperspace Heterotopia Metareality Structuralism What does it all mean The unique language used in architectural theory both in speech and writing can appear daunting and confusing particularly to new architectural students Decoding Theoryspeak provides an accessible guide to the specialized language of contemporary design for the next generation of thinkers architects and design leaders It includes definitions of over 200 terms clear cross references illustrations throughout It is an essential pocket sized resource for students and practitioners alike The Victorian Palace of Science Edward J. Gillin,2017-11-09 Edward J Gillin explores the extraordinary role of scientific knowledge in the building of the Houses of Parliament in Victorian Britain The Architectural Representation of Islam Eric Roose,2009 Study of Dutch mosque designs that shows that current designs do not oppose Dutch society but those versions of Islam they hold to be false Robert Willis (1800-1875) and the Foundation of Architectural History Alexandrina Buchanan,2013 The first full scale biography of Robert Willis the founding father of architectural history WINNER of the Cambridge Association for Local History book award 2016 Robert Willis was the archetypal nineteenth century polymath Officially as Jacksonian Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy at the University of Cambridge he specialized in the study of mechanism which he also taught at the Royal School of Mines in London In the field of science he was an experimentalist inventor and educational innovator Meanwhile in his spare time he pursued his passion pioneering the serious study of architectural history Initially his work was aimed at architects his role in providing an intellectual underpinning to the contemporary Gothic Revival was acknowledged by the award of the gold medal of the Royal Institute of British Architects in 1862 However his main contribution was more historical Starting with Canterbury in 1844 over the course of his career he investigated almost every English cathedral and developed an approach combining documentary and archaeological research which remains in use today His studies culminated in the monumental Architectural History of the University of Cambridge still the definitive account of its subject In this fascinating and lavishly illustrated intellectual biography drawn from extensive archival and architectural research the author sheds new light on the interconnections between Willis s varied fields of interest and his fundamental role in the creation of a discipline ALEXANDRINA BUCHANAN is both an architectural historian and an archivist her introduction to archives came through cataloguing the papers of Robert Willis at the Cambridge University Library She is now Lecturer in Archive Studies at the University of Liverpool
