Motivation In Education Theory Research And Applications 3rd Edition:

Motivation in Education Dale H. Schunk, Paul R. Pintrich, Judith L. Meece, 2010 The primary objectives of Motivation in Education Theory Research and Application third edition are to present major motivational theories principles and research findings in sufficient detail to help students understand the complexity of motivational processes and to provide examples of motivational concepts and principles applied to educational settings Although different perspectives on motivation are presented the text emphasizes the role of personal cognitions and beliefs during teaching and learning This focus is consistent with the view that learners are active constructive participants in the learning process consequently the text highlights how motivation is situated facilitated and constrained by various classroom and contextual factors Following an introductory chapter that defines and exemplifies motivation and discusses motivation research how motivation relates to learning and historical views of motivation the next six chapters discuss theoretical and conceptual perspectives that stress the role of personal cognitions beliefs affects and values in motivation expectancy value theory attribution theory social cognitive theory goal theory interest and affect and intrinsic and extrinsic motivation The remaining three chapters focus on various contextual factors in promoting motivation sociocultural influences teacher influences and classroom and school influences By blending theory research and applications throughout the text provides instructors and students with a unified view of the role of motivation in education Emotion, Motivation, and Self-Regulation Nathan C. Hall, Thomas

Goetz, 2013-07-01 This handbook is a user friendly resource for pre service and new practicing teachers outlining theoretical models and empirical research findings concerning the nature and effects of emotions motivation and self regulated learning for students and teachers alike Recent Developments in Technology-Enhanced and Computer-Assisted Language

Learning Zou, Bin, Thomas, Michael, 2019-12-06 The pace at which technology changes has created unique challenges in the integration of such technologies into language teaching and learning Innovative pedagogies and strategies must be developed that adapt to these changes and accommodate future technological changes Recent Developments in Technology Enhanced and Computer Assisted Language Learning is an essential research publication that focuses on technological influences on language education and applications of technology in language learning courses including foreign and second language learning Featuring an array of topics such as artificial intelligence teacher preparation and distance learning this book is ideal for teachers language instructors IT specialists instructional designers curriculum developers researchers education professionals academicians administrators practitioners and students Self-regulated Learning and Second

Language Writing Lin Sophie Teng, 2022-05-30 This monograph is to investigate practical applications and contributions of self regulated learning SRL to second foreign language L2 writing from sociocognitive and sociocultural perspectives It showcases a comprehensive and updated review of conceptual and methodological issues of SRL and the state of the art research on its applications to L2 learning and teaching This volume further elaborates the design and results of a large scale project which conducts observational and intervention studies investigating SRL strategies in L2 writing This book reveals that a cross disciplinary understanding of SRL strategies plays a crucial role in advancing theoretical functions of SRL and in extending its applications to L2 education in general and L2 writing in particular This book makes significant contributions to developing and validating new conceptual frameworks and tools for evaluating multidimensional structures of SRL strategies and self efficacy in L2 writing elucidating the interplay of personal behavioral environmental and psychological factors with SRL strategies and writing performance and presenting an effective self regulation instructional model for nurturing L2 learners motivation and confidence to strategize reflect and succeed in writing Teng has established herself as one of the prominent scholars in the discussion of self regulated learning strategies Her contribution to the fields of L2 writing and strategic learning are undeniable This monograph is an excellent showing of how her endeavors to bring established theories from educational psychology to applied writing research have progressed over a number of methodologically rigorous studies It should be required reading for anyone with an interest in cultivating strategic writers not only in the Chinese context but worldwide Nathan Thomas UCL Institute of Education

Self-Regulated Learning Héfer Bembenuatty, 2011-07-15 Self regulation involves students beliefs about their own potential for actions thoughts feelings and behaviors that will then allow them to work toward their own academic goals Clearly the need for self regulation in higher education is crucial This volume describes the theories tools and techniques that can be used to assist in the promotion of self regulation in students including areas such as goal orientations self efficacy beliefs social comparisons self monitoring and self evaluation Edited by H fer Bembenuatty assistant professor of educational psychology at Queens College of the City University of New York this is the 126th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Teaching and Learning which offers a comprehensive range of ideas and techniques for improving college teaching based on the experience of seasoned instructors and the latest findings of educational and psychological researchers
