Caught Janice Singleton, 2015-01-23 All my life I've had a love for control In order to have control I needed money It started out from something as simple as an allowance If it wasn't given to me I found a way to get it Hell I was filling my little Gerber baby food jars with all the coins that I could get my hands on at an early age The sound of the money clinking against the glass thrilled me Somehow I understood that what I had in my hand was power and I wanted it all the time I was becoming a master of money before I even mastered multiplication I've always excelled at anything that I made up my mind to do From grade school through high school I had no problems academically I graduated college had a successful business and entered into the positive career field of law enforcement I was extremely blessed but greed got the best of me while climbing my way to the top of the economic ladder Then there I was living it up in Laughlin Nevada in a clean brown Armani suit to match my complexion wearing jewelry that could pay someone's mortgage for a year enjoying the high life in the City of Lights and Chances Everything was so exciting every moment so electric and I was clueless that the ground beneath me was caving in As I placed another bet eyes glazed over in anticipation waiting for the big money hit I was oblivious to the fact that my quiet secure humble home and my business were being surrounded for a raid How foolish and greedy could I have been to let it get this far Now there was no way out I was caught
