criticism in the field of children's young adult and adult literature Beyond the Book Bridget Carrington, 2014-01-06 November 2012 saw the joint annual conference of the British branch of the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY UK and the MA course at the National Centre for Research in Children's Literature NCRCL at Roehampton University. The theme of the conference was the investigation of aspects of literature for children that were Beyond the Book. From woodcuts to e-books, children's literature has always lent itself to reinterpretation and expansion. In its early days this was achieved through different forms of retelling through illustration and interactive illustration, pop-ups and flaps, and then through music, film, television, and stage adaptation. The contributors to the 2012 conference explored the variety of means by which we transform literature intended for children and celebrated the vibrant world of creativity that has sought and continues to seek different ways in which to engage young readers. Bridget Carrington and Jennifer Harding have previously collaborated as the editors of earlier IBBY UK NCRCL MA conference proceedings Going Graphic: Comics and Graphic Novels for Young People, Conflicts and Controversies: Challenging Children's Literature, and It Doesn't Have to Rhyme: Children and Poetry. Pied Piper Publishing, 2010, 2011, 2012. The Discourse of Reading Groups David Peplow, Joan Swann, Paola Trimarco, Sara Whiteley, 2015-11-19. Of interest in their own terms as a significant cultural practice, reading groups also provide a window on the everyday interpretation of literary texts. While reading is often considered a solitary process, reading groups constitute a form of social reading where interpretations are produced and displayed in discourse. The Discourse of Reading Groups is a study of such joint conceptual activity and how this is necessarily embedded in interpersonal activity and the production of reader identities. Uniquely in this context, it draws on and seeks to integrate ideas from both cognitive and social linguistics. The book will be of interest to scholars in literacy studies as well as cultural and literary studies, the history of reading, applied linguistics, and sociolinguistics, digital technologies, and educational research. Silence is Goldfish Annabel Pitcher, 2015-10-01. SILENCE IS GOLDFISH is a story that demands to be heard. I have a voice, but it isn't mine. It used to say things so I'd fit in, to please my parents, to please my teachers. It used to tell the universe I was something I wasn't. It lied. Fifteen-year-old Tess doesn't mean to become mute. At first, she's just too shocked to speak. And who wouldn't be? Discovering your whole life has been a lie because your dad isn't your real father is a pretty big deal. Tess sets out to find the truth of her identity and uncovers a secret that could ruin multiple lives. But can she ask for help when she's forgotten how to use her voice? This is the third YA novel from the bestselling and prizewinning author of MY SISTER LIVES ON THE MANTELPIECE and KETCHUP CLOUDS. Rollercoasters: Ghost Boys Jewell Parker Rhodes, 2024-01-11. When 12-year-old Jerome is killed by a police officer who mistakes his toy gun for a real one, Jerome becomes a ghost. Stuck on earth and watching his family grieve, Jerome wonders why he remains there. He begins to notice other ghost boys, and as their stories are revealed, he learns they have something in common and remain behind on earth for a reason. But what can the dead do to bring about change? Combining fiction and real events, the book explores themes of racism, prejudice, and discrimination. As it jumps between past and present Ghost Boys spans generations of injustice inspiring discussions of social justice and the fight for equality

Rulers of Literary Playgrounds Justyna Deszcz-Tryhubczak, Irena Kalla, 2020-10-29 Rulers of Literary Playgrounds Politics of Intergenerational Play in Children's Literature offers multifaceted reflection on interdependences between children and adults as they engage in play in literary texts and in real life This volume brings together international children's literature scholars who each look at children's texts as key vehicles of intergenerational play reflecting ideologies of childhood and as objects with which children and adults interact physically emotionally and cognitively Each chapter applies a distinct theoretical approach to selected children's texts including individual and social play constructive play or play deprivation This collection of essays constitutes a timely voice in the current discussion about the importance of children's play and adults contribution to it vis vis the increasing limitations of opportunities for children's playful time in contemporary societies
