Myth Literature And The African World:

Myth, Literature and the African World Wole Soyinka, 1990-09-13 Wole Soyinka winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature here analyses the interconnecting worlds of myth ritual and literature in Africa

Myth, Literature and the African World, 1995 Critical Perspectives on Wole Soyinka Wole Soyinka, 1980 Distinguished scholars analyze the plays poetry and prose of Wole Smoyinka winner of the Nobel Prize for literature in 1986 Essays trace his career and place his work in the general context of African literature

Understanding African Philosophy Richard H. Bell, 2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Postcolonial Identity in Wole Soyinka Mpalive-Hangson Msiska, 2007 Soyinka s representation of postcolonial African identity is re examined in the light of his major plays novels and poetry to show how this writer s idiom of cultural authenticity both embraces hybridity and defines itself as specific and particular For Soyinka such authenticity involves recovering tradition and inserting it in postcolonial modernity to facilitate transformative moral and political justice The past can be both our enabling future and our nemesis In a distinctive approach grounded in cultural studies Postcolonial Identity in Wole Soyinka locates the artist s intellectual and political concerns within the broader field of postcolonial cultural theory arguing that although ostensibly distant from mainstream theory Soyinka focuses on fundamental questions concerning international culture and political identity formations the relationship between myth and history tradition and modernity and the unresolved tension between power as a force for good or evil Soyinka s treatment of the relationship between individual selfhood and the various framing social and collective identities so the book argues is yet another aspect linking his work to the broader intellectual currents of today Thus Soyinka s vision is seen as central to contemporary efforts to grasp the nature of modernity His works conceptualize identity in ways that promote and modify national perceptions of Africanness rescuing them from the colonial and neocolonial logic of cultural denigration in a manner that fully acknowledges the cosmopolitan and global contexts of African postcolonial formation Overall what emerges from the present study is the conviction that in Soyinka s work it is the capacity to assume personal and collective agency and the particular choices made by particular subjects at given historical moments that determine the trajectory of change and ultimately the nature of postcolonial existence itself Postcolonial Identity in Wole Soyinka is a major and imaginative contribution to the study of Wole Soyinka African literature and postcolonial cultural theory and one in which writing and creativity stand in fruitful symbiosis with the critical sense It should appeal to Soyinka scholars to students of African literature and to anyone interested in postcolonial and cultural theory

Understanding African Philosophy Jan Fernback, 2015 A critical guide to some of the most important issues in modern African philosophy Topics include the legacy of colonialism the challenges of post independence Africa and African oral and written philosophical traditions

Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader s Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study Caliban's Reason

Paget Henry,2002-05-03 Paget introduces the general reader to Afro Caribbean philosophy in this ground breaking work Since Afro Caribbean thought is inherently hybrid in nature he traces the roots of this discourse in traditional African thought and in the Christian and Enlightenment traditions of Western Europe Dramatic Revisions of Myths, Fairy

Tales and Legends Verna A. Foster,2012-10-06 These new essays explore the ways in which contemporary dramatists have retold or otherwise made use of myths fairy tales and legends from a variety of cultures including Greek West African North American Japanese and various parts of Europe The dramatists discussed range from well established playwrights such as Tony Kushner Caryl Churchill and Timberlake Wertenbaker to new theatrical stars such as Sarah Ruhl and Tarell Alvin McCraney The book contributes to the current discussion of adaptation theory by examining the different ways and for what purposes plays revise mythic stories and characters The essays contribute to studies of literary uses of myth by focusing on how recent dramatists have used myths fairy tales and legends to address contemporary concerns especially changing representations of women and the politics of gender relations but also topics such as damage to the environment and political violence

Literary History: Towards a Global Perspective Anders Pettersson,Gunilla Lindberg-Wada,Margareta Petersson,Stefan Helgesson,2011-12-22 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one s own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic
