Let's Talk About When Someone You Love Is in a Nursing Home Diana Star Helmer, 1998-12-15 Discusses why someone would enter a nursing home, what nursing homes are like, and how to act when visiting someone there. Let's Talk About Diabetes Mike Gordon, 1999-01-15 A simple introduction to the symptoms of diabetes, its effects on the body, and how it is controlled with diet and insulin. Let's Talk About Head Lice Mike Gordon, 1999-01-15 Discusses infestation with head lice, how it happens, how to treat it, and how to prevent it. This mindset is particularly common in areas of procreation such as abortion and various assisted reproductive technologies. Through a lens that combines Christianity, natural law, and scientific reason, this book discusses how the breakdown of man/woman marriage, biological connection, the destruction and disregard for human life, and the objectification and commodification of women and children manufactures trauma in not only adults but in children. This trauma is evidenced by the stories of adult children who are victims of society's current cultural trends as well as evidenced by the research of various psychologists, sociologists, and other professionals. For too long, adults have been asking children to conform to their ways of living, assuming children will just get over it, and children are now starting to speak out about the harms of their upbringings. It's essential to illuminate their voices as these familial breakdowns have become so normal that we currently can't talk about any of their negative aspects with any degree of common sense. Let's Talk About Moving to a New Place Diana Star Helmer, 1998-12-15 Discusses some of the feelings that moving from one place to another may cause and how to adjust. Let's Talk About Having a New Brother or Sister

Diana Star Helmer, 1998-12-15 Having a new sibling join the family isn't always a joyous occasion for a child. This reassuring book stresses that parents love all of their children equally and that having a new sibling is a wonderful opportunity for a child, not a tragedy.
