The U.S. Supreme Court Muriel L. Dubois, Steven S. Smith, 2004 Provides an introduction to the Supreme Court its justices and how it selects and decides cases Love, Grandma , 2007-01-01 Cultural Writing Letters LOVE GRANDMA is a moving collection of letters to grandchildren telling the stories of how their grandparents have come to their anti war beliefs With warmth sadness fear anger courage and hope they tell of experiences that led to their life long activism against the futility of war Family stories present young readers with a moral stand against war and promote multi generational conversations about peace violence and justice Honest accounts of the realities of deadly conflict encourage younger people to question prevailing cultural attitudes of the enemy LOVE GRANDMA provides a new facet of family history and illustrates how family affection and compassion are easily expanded to the entire human family An Angel's View Reginald E. Hicks, 2012-10-22 Throughout the ages and stages of American history grandmothers have been the guardians of the generations the dispensers of wisdom the instillers of pride and dignity the conveyors of important religious values the financial and emotional supporters of the family during times of need and the promoters of cultural standards and traditions From Maya Angelou to Martin Luther King Jr to Oprah Winfrey the success of many African Americans can be traced back to the love and support of a grandmother Author Reginald E Hicks is no exception For Hicks An Angels View began as a labor of love to chronicle the life of his own beloved grandmother from her birth on the family farm in rural New Kent County Virginia in 1923 through her personal social and political trials and tribulations to her quickly approaching eighty ninth birthday However his humble commemoration eventually blossomed into an emotional story of love betrayal triumph and tragedy embedded in a riveting and dynamic Southern history Through this exceptional work Hicks makes a unique and valuable contribution to his family and to the world of black literature It's Not the Olden Days Anymore, Grandma Angeline M Jerz,

Carceral Apartheid Brittany Friedman, 2024-12-04 It is impossible to deny the impact of lies and white supremacy on the institutional conditions in US prisons There is a particular power dynamic of racist intent in the prison system that culminates in what Brittany Friedman terms carceral apartheid Prisons are a microcosm of how carceral apartheid operates as a larger governing strategy to decimate political targets and foster deceit disinformation and division in society Among many shocking discoveries Friedman shows that beginning in the 1950s California prison officials declared war on imprisoned Black people and sought to identify Black militants as a key problem creating a strategy for the management segregation and elimination of these individuals from the prison population that continues into the present day Carceral Apartheid delves into how the California Department of Corrections deployed various official clandestine and at times extralegal control techniques including officer alliances with imprisoned white supremacists to suppress Black political movements revealing the broader themes of deception empire corruption and white supremacy in American mass incarceration Drawing from original interviews with founders of Black political movements such as the Black Guerilla Family white supremacists and a swath of little known archival data Friedman uncovers how the US domestic war against imprisoned Black people models and perpetuates genocide imprisonment and torture abroad
