Persico,2007-12-18 November 11 1918 The final hours pulsate with tension as every man in the trenches hopes to escape the melancholy distinction of being the last to die in World War I The Allied generals knew the fighting would end precisely at 11 00 A M yet in the final hours they flung men against an already beaten Germany The result Eleven thousand casualties suffered more than during the D Day invasion of Normandy Why Allied commanders wanted to punish the enemy to the very last moment and career officers saw a fast fading chance for glory and promotion Joseph E Persico puts the reader in the trenches with the forgotten and the famous among the latter Corporal Adolf Hitler Captain Harry Truman and Colonels Douglas MacArthur and George Patton Mainly he follows ordinary soldiers lives illuminating their fate as the end approaches Persico sets the last day of the war in historic context with a gripping reprise of all that led up to it from the 1914 assassination of the Austrian archduke Franz Ferdinand which ignited the war to the raw racism black doughboys endured except when ordered to advance and die in the war s last hour Persico recounts the war s bloody climax in a cinematic style that evokes All Quiet on the Western Front Grand Illusion and Paths of Glory The pointless fighting on the last day of the war is the perfect metaphor for the four years that preceded it years of senseless slaughter for hollow purposes This book is sure to become the definitive history of the end of a conflict Winston Churchill called the hardest cruelest and least rewarded of all the wars that have been fought He Will Turn Your Sadness Into Joy Mischa A. McMorris,2023-06-09 Physical death is inevitable and mourning and grieving the loss of a loved one is a normal process every human will experience at least once in his or her lifetime Whether the loss of a loved one is expected or unexpected God desires you to depend deeply on Him during this challenging season of your life God desires this for you so He can provide you with the comfort peace community of people and love you will need to support you during this journey God also desires you to depend deeply on Him so that your faith and focus remain in Him Many of God s people have become stagnated in life and have lost hope because they did not have an understanding of His promises to be with them in this time and provide every tangible and intangible need they needed However this will not be you You will receive and know God s goodness grace promises and unshakeable love for your life Hold on to EVERY word of this devotional written just for you and remain confident during this season of your life and the seasons to come that God is with you always May God s love peace and grace be multiplied to you Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh,2010-02-08
