Myfanwy First Book Myfanwys People:

Self and Story in Early Childhood Hugh Crago, 2022-09-22 Our children grow up into a world of stories in books on screens but what do they make of the stories we offer them What do they think and feel as they listen to a parent read a picture book What if a story confuses or upsets them Over the past fifty years several intelligent committed mothers undertook the onerous task of recording exactly what their children said and did in response to the stories they shared Some of their records extended over five years or even longer Their research done without funding or academic supervision offers us unparalleled insight into children's minds long before they learn to speak let alone learn to read In Self and Story in Early Childhood Hugh Crago draws on his unusual combination of expertise in literary studies developmental psychology and psychotherapy to re-examine the startling implications of this neglected body of evidence He highlights how much children can achieve without formal teaching but with the supportive presence of a trusted adult who will participate with them in the story experience This book will be of great interest to scholars of developmental psychology early literacy and narratology as well as to professionals working with preschoolers Most of all it will fascinate parents who themselves share stories with their child

Didactics and the Modern Robinsonade Ian Kinane, 2019 Didactics and the Modern Robinsonade examines modern and contemporary Robinsonade texts written for young readers looking specifically at the ways in which later adaptations of the Robinson Crusoe story subvert both traditional narrative structures and particular ideological codes within the genre This collection redresses both the gender and geopolitical biases that have characterized most writings within the Robinsonade genre since its inception and includes chapters on little known works of fiction by female authors as well as works from outside the mainstream of Anglo American culture
