drop their hands in despair With these young Arabs on the contrary it is only the wrong bias of a few early years to correct leaving carte blanche for any amount of hope in youth maturity and old age Being desirous of forming for my own edification some notion of the amount of the evil existing and the efforts made to counteract it I planned a pilgrimage into this Arabia Infelix this Petr a of the London flagstones and purpose setting down here in brief a few of my experiences for the information of stay at home travellers and still more for the sake of pointing out to such as may be disposed to aid in the work of rescuing these little Arabs the proper channels for their beneficence Selecting then the Seven Dials and Bethnal Green as the foci of my observation in West and East London respectively I set out for the former one bleak March night and by way of breaking ground applied to the first police constable I met on that undesirable beat for information as to my course After one or two failures I met with an officer literally active and intelligent who conveyed me through several of that network of streets surrounding the Seven Dials leaving me to my own devices when he had given me the general bearings of the district it would be desirable to visit My first raid was on the Ragged School and Soup Kitchen in Charles Street Drury Lane an evil looking and unfragrant locality but the institution in question stands so close to the main thoroughfare that the most fastidious may visit it with ease Here I found some twenty Arabs assembled for evening school They were of all ages from seven to fifteen and their clothing was in an inverse ratio to their dirt very little of the former and a great deal of the latter They moved about with their bare feet in the most feline way like the veritable Bedouin himself There they were however over greasy slates and grimy copy books in process of civilization The master informed me that his special difficulties arose from the attractions of the theatre and the occasional intrusion of wild Arabs who came only to kick up a row At eight o'clock the boys were to be regaled with a brass band practice so finding from one of the assembled Arabs that there was a second institution of the kind in King Street Long Acre I passed on thereto Here I was fortunate enough to find the presiding genius in the person of a young man engaged in business during the day and devoting his extra time to the work of civilizing the barbarians of this district Sunday and week day services night schools day schools Bands of Hope temperance meetings and last not least the soup kitchen were the means at work here Not a single officer is paid The task is undertaken all for love and nothing for reward and it has thriven so far that my presence interrupted a debate between the gentleman above mentioned and one of his coadjutors on the subject of taking larger premises The expenses were met by the weekly offerings and I was surprised to see by a notice posted in the room where the Sunday services are held that the sum total for the past week was only 19s 4d So there must be considerable sacrifice of something more than time to carry on this admirable work Under the guidance of the second gentleman mentioned above I proceeded to the St George s and St Giles s Refuge in Great Queen Street where boys are admitted on their own application the only qualification being destitution Here they are housed clothed boarded and taught such trades as they may be fitted for and not lost sight of until they are provided with situations A hundred and fifty four was the number of this truly miraculous draught from the great ocean of London streets whom I saw all comfortably bedded in one spacious dormitory Downstairs were the implements and products of the day s work dozens of miniature cobblers appliances machines for sawing and chopping firewood but at all events they had a roof above them and were out of the cruel east wind that made Arabia Petr a that evening an undesirable resting place indeed Lights were put out and doors closed when I left as this is not a night refuge but notices are posted I am informed in the various casual wards and temporary refuges directing boys to this There is a kindred institution for girls in Broad Street Such was my first experience of the western portion of Arabia Infelix Mystic London; Or, Phases of Occult Life in the Metropolis Charles Maurice Davies,2016-05-22 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Mystic London Charles Maurice Davies,2019 MYSTIC LONDON Charles Maurice 1828-1910 Davies,2016-08-29 Mystic London Charles Maurice Davies,2014-03 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1875 Edition Mystic London Charles Maurice Davies,2021-03-30 Reproduction of the original Mystic London by Charles Maurice Davies Mystic London Charles Maurice Davies,2015-07-14 Excerpt from Mystic London Or Phases of Occult Life in the British Metropolis Of all protean forms of misery that meet us in the bosom of that stony hearted stepmother London there is none that appeals so directly to our sympathies as the spectacle of a destitute child In the case of the grown man or woman sorrow and suffering are often traceable to the faults or at best to the misfortunes of the sufferers themselves but in the case of the child they are mostly if not always vicarious The fault or desertion or death of the natural protectors turns loose upon the desert of our streets those nomade hordes of Bedouins male and female whose presence is being made especially palpable just now and whose reclamation is a perplexing yet still a hopeful problem In the case of the adult Arab there is a life s work to undo and the facing of that fact it is which makes some of our bravest workers drop their hands in despair With these young Arabs on the contrary it is only the wrong basis of a few early years to correct leaving carte blanche for any amount of hope in youth maturity and old age About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in
