Pragadeeswaran S. Pragadeeswaran, Allah To Zen Ma Chetan Unmani Swami Chaitanya Keerti, 2000 Here and Now Osho, 2007 Discourses by an Indian sectarian religious leader Time, Temporality and Violence in International Relations Anna M. Agathangelou, Kyle D. Killian, 2016-03-02 Time transforms the way we see world politics and insinuates itself into the ways we act In this groundbreaking volume Agathangelou and Killian bring together scholars from a range of disciplines to tackle time and temporality in international relations The authors critical theorists artists and poets theorize and speak from the vantage point of the anticolonial postcolonial and decolonial event They investigate an array of experiences and structures of violence oppression neocolonization slavery war poverty and exploitation focusing on the tensions produced by histories of slavery and colonization and disrupting dominant modes of how we understand present times This edited volume takes IR in a new direction defatalizing the ways in which we think about dominant narratives of violence peace and liberation and renewing what it means to decolonize today's world It challenges us to confront violence and suffering and articulates another way to think the world arguing for an understanding of the present

as a vulnerable space through which radically different temporal experiences appear And it calls for a disruption of the everyday politics of expediency in the guise of neoliberalism and security This volume reorients the ethical and political assumptions that affectively imaginatively and practically captivate us simultaneously unsettling the familiar but dubious promises of a modernity that decimates political life Re animating an international political the authors evoke people s struggles and movements that are neither about redemption nor erasure but a suspension of time for radical new beginnings
