Our God Is Undocumented Biblical Faith And Immigrant Justice:

Our God Is Undocumented: Biblical Faith and Immigrant Justice Ched Myers and Matthew Colwell, 2012 God and the Illegal Alien Robert W. Heimbürger, 2018 A fresh response to the problem of illegal immigration in the United States through the context of Christian theology Theologies on the Move Joerg Rieger, 2020-10-13 Theologies on the Move Religion Migration and Pilgrimage in the World of Neoliberal Capital speaks to the reality that many religions have developed in motion with people exploring new boundaries migrating and being displaced Consequently major religious traditions form as they come into contact with other religions and cultures typically in situations of struggle and pressure Due to neoliberal capitalism more people are on the move today than ever before Most are driven by necessity migration due to violence poverty and perceived poverty others by religious quests that are often fueled by experiences of tension pilgrimage The chapters in this volume explore the complexity of these situations examining in detail how theology and religion shape up in various contexts on the move and investigating specific problems and tensions in order to suggest solutions alternatives and new possibilities After Trump Donald Heinz, 2020-03-18 A black social gospel movement arose after the Civil War to mitigate the broken promises of reparations and the reestablishment of white supremacy After the Gilded Age a new social gospel arose in the early twentieth century that brought together Christian proclamation and an ethic of social justice that became liberal Protestantism's distinctive contribution to world Christianity leaving residues in the New Deal and the Great Society In the face of poverty and bondage in the 1960s Martin Luther King Jr led a second wave of the black social gospel movement and died for it as prophets do It birthed new liberation movements on many fronts Again things fell apart as the Reagan Revolution massively redistributed wealth and social benefits upward and late capitalism flourished In this environment tax cuts for the wealthy and massive inequalities grew and President Trump inherited the resentments of the Christian Right and the opportunism of economic conservatives Would a recurring social gospel have made a difference After Trump American Christianity faces another crisis of decision Will the strange God of the Bible be recalled will the churches relive as social movements that bring good news to all the people will American Christianity recontest the public square and proclaim a new social gospel for our times This book is an invitation and a manifesto T&T Clark Handbook of Sacraments and Sacramentality Martha Moore-Keish, James Farwell, 2022-12-29 Introducing readers to the contemporary field of sacramental theology this volume covers the biblical and historical foundations a survey of the state of the discipline and a collection of constructive essays representing major themes practices and approaches to sacraments and sacramentality in the contemporary world The volume starts with a set of foundational essays that offer broad introduction to the field of sacramental theology from contemporary scholars analysing a number of historical figures in order to illumine and inform contemporary sacramental theology The second part of the volume is dedicated to a series of essays on sacramentality and includes attention to elements of space time ritual action music and word all as aspects of what Christians have termed sacramental reality The third set of essays includes attention to each of the seven practices that have most commonly been termed sacraments in Christian traditions baptism eucharist Lord's Supper confirmation confession forgiveness and reconciliation marriage ordination and anointing The final part of this volume features scholars who are working on sacraments in conversation with contemporary academic disciplines critical race theory queer theory comparative theology and disability studies

A Faith Encompassing All Creation Tripp York, Andy Alexis-Baker, 2014-09-12 Even as evidence accumulates that humans have significantly contributed to global climate change many Christians have questions about what it means to care for creation Some question whether focusing on creation care takes away from a person's spirituality or from caring for other humans Others wonder to what extent we can live peaceably with nonhuman creation Still others wonder whether we should be better stewards of the environment and whether developing better technology might save us from the current crisis The diverse authors of this volume address these questions in an accessible way

Rescripting Religion in the City Alana Harris, 2016-04-22 Rescripting Religion in the City explores the role of faith and religious practices as strategies for understanding and negotiating the migratory experience Leading international scholars draw on case studies of urban settings in the global north and south Presenting a nuanced understanding of the religious identities of migrants within the modern metropolis this book makes a significant contribution to fields as diverse as twentieth century immigration history the sociology of religion and migration studies as well as historical and urban geography and practical theology

You Shall Love the Stranger as Yourself Fleur S Houston, 2015-03-24 You Shall Love the Stranger as Yourself addresses the complex political legal and humanitarian challenges raised by asylum seekers and refugees from a Biblical perspective The book explores the themes of humanity and justice through exegesis of relevant passages in the Old and New Testaments skillfully woven into accounts of contemporary refugee situations Applying Biblical analysis to one of the most pressing humanitarian concerns of modern times Houston creates a timely work that will be of interest to students and scholars of theology religion and human rights

People of Faith, People of Jeong (Qing) Nam Soon Song, Ben C. H. Kuo, Dong-Ha Kim, In Kee Kim, 2020-07-02 This book People of Faith People of Jeong Qing seeks to reveal and understand the current state and the future prospective of Asian Canadian immigrant churches ACIC including Chinese Taiwanese and Korean churches Starting with a brief chronicle of ACIC history this book shares the journeys and the stories of current members of lay and clergy from various ACIC The chapters attempt to explain the influence and the impact that jeong and faith have on these churches to envisage the future of ACIC and to draw relevant implications for the betterment of these churches going into the future This book reflects the real voices and sentiments of the first and the second generation members of these ethnic Asian immigrant churches in the Greater Toronto Area GTA It is original authentic comprehensive and inclusive in its perspectives the first book of its kind on Asian immigrant churches in Canada The book will serve as an inspiration and a practical guide for immigrant churches in cross cultural and cross generational transitions It offers
