Out Of Time Katherine Anne Porter Prize In Short Fiction:

Out of Time Geoff Schmidt, 2011 Geoff Schmidt's debut collection Out of Time is a meditation on meaning and mortality and the ways that story and the imagined life can sustain us. In these stories time is running out for the people yet the power of language the human ability to tell to imagine and invent is a redemptive force.

A Study Guide for Katherine Anne Porter's "Grave" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016-07-12 A Study Guide for Katherine Anne Porter's Grave excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students. This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more. For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs.

Venus in the Afternoon Tehila Lieberman, 2012 Winner of the Katherine Anne Porter Prize in Short Fiction 2012 The short stories in this rich debut collection embody in their complexity Alice Munro's description of the short story as a world seen in a quick glancing light. In chiseled and elegant prose Lieberman conjures wildly disparate worlds. A middle aged window washer mourning his wife and an estranged daughter begins to grow attached to a young woman he sees through the glass a writer against his better judgment pursues a new relationship with a femme fatale who years ago broke his heart and the daughter of a Holocaust survivor struggles with the delicate decision of whether to finally ask her aging mother how it was that she survived. It is all here the exigencies of love of lust the raw unlit terrain of grief. Whether plumbing the darker depths or casting a humorous eye on a doomed relationship these stories never force a choice between tragedy and redemption but rather invite us into the private moments and crucibles of lives as hungry and flawed as our own.
