Protection Refugees International Migration Colloques:

"INTERNATIONAL MIGRATION" Dr. Shivaputra Pothalkar, International Migration Law Vincent

Chetail, 2019-03-29 International Migration Law provides a detailed and comprehensive overview of the international legal framework applicable to the movement of persons across borders. The role of international law in this field is complex and often ambiguous; there is no single source for the international law governing migration. The current framework is scattered throughout a wide array of rules belonging to numerous fields of international law including refugee law, human rights law, humanitarian law, labour law, trade law, maritime law, criminal law, and consular law. This textbook therefore cuts through this complexity by clearly demonstrating what the current international law is and assessing how it operates. The book offers a unique and comprehensive mapping of this growing field of international law. It brings together and critically analyses the disparate conventional, customary, and soft law on a broad variety of issues such as irregular migration, human trafficking, refugee protection, labour migration, non-discrimination, regional free movement schemes, and global migration governance. It also offers a particular focus on important groups of migrants, namely migrant workers, refugees, and smuggled migrants. It maps the current status of the law governing their movement, providing a thorough critical analysis of the various stands of international law which apply to them, suggesting how the law may continue to develop in the future. This book provides the perfect introduction to all aspects of migration and international law.

Foundations of International Migration Law

Brian Opeskin, Richard Perruchoud, Jillyanne Redpath-Cross, 2012-09-27 International migration law is an important field of international law which has attracted exceptional interest in recent years. This book has been written from a wide variety of perspectives for those wanting to understand the legal framework that regulates migration. It is intended for students new to this field of study who seek an overview of its many components. It will also appeal to those who have focussed on a particular branch of international migration law but require an understanding of how their specialisation fits with other branches of the discipline. Written by migration law specialists and led by respected international experts, this volume draws upon the combined knowledge of international migration law and policy from academia, international, intergovernmental, regional, and non-governmental organisations, and national governments. Additional features include case studies, maps, break-out boxes, and references to resources which allow for a full understanding of the law in context.

International Migration and Security Elspeth Guild, Joanne van Selm, 2005-03-31 This book investigates value assessments regarding migrants in Europe, the USA, Canada, and Australia. While looking at issues such as security, human rights, legal systems, identity, racism, welfare, health, and labour.

Comparative Regional Protection Frameworks for Refugees , Iranian Refugees in Transit

Maral Jefroudi, 2024-07-25 Maral Jefroudi presents a comprehensive picture of one of the largest migration waves in contemporary history by analyzing refugees' interactions with the Turkish State, the UNHCR, and within the community of Iranians in transit after the 1979 revolution. Iranian Refugees in Transit unveils the rich history of political engagement.

among Iranian refugees before their arrival in Turkey contextualised within Turkey's own landscape of political and ethnic conflicts Jefroudi expertly examines the intersectional distribution of precarity among refugees By bringing together interviews with refugees from the period analyzing cultural products by and on them and tracing their footsteps in newspapers and scholarly literature this book fills a significant gap in Turkey's migration history Through a critical historical analysis of the international asylum system Iranian Refugees in Transit offers valuable insights into the dynamics of the current refugee crisis

Migration, Civil Society and Global Governance Carl-Ulrik Schierup, Branka Likic-Brboric, Raúl Delgado Wise, Gülay Toksöz, 2020-06-29 How do the United Nations international organizations governments corporate actors and a wide variety of civil society organizations and regional and global trade unions perceive the root causes of migration global inequality and options for sustainable development This is one of the most pertinent political questions of the 21st century This comprehensive collection examines the development of an emerging global governance on migration with the focus on spaces roles strategies and alliance making of a composite transnational civil society engaged in issues of rights and the protection of migrants and their families It reveals the need to strengthen networking and convergence among movements that adopt different entry points to the same struggle from fighting managed migration to contesting corporate control of food and land The authors examine the opportunities and challenges faced by civil society in its endeavour to promote a rights based approach within international and intergovernmental fora engaged in setting up a global compact for the management of migration such as the Global Forum for Migration and Development and in other global policy spaces Chapters 1 3 and 6 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 license Chapters 1 and 6 and a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND Chapter 3

Transnational Social Protection Peggy Levitt, Erica Dobbs, Ken Chih-Yan Sun, Ruxandra Paul, 2023 Argues that a new set of transnational social welfare arrangements has emerged that challenge traditional social welfare provision based on national citizenship and residence The idea that social rights are something we are eligible for based on where we live or where we are citizens is out of date In Transnational Social Protection Peggy Levitt Erica Dobbs Ken Chih-Yan Sun and Ruxandra Paul consider what happens to social welfare when more and more people live work study and retire outside their countries of citizenship where they receive health education and elder care The authors use the concept of resource environment to show how migrants and their families piece together packages of protections from multiple sources in multiple settings and the ways that these vary by place and time They further show how a new hybrid transnational social protection regime has emerged in response to the changing environment that complements supplements or in some cases substitutes for national social welfare systems as we knew them Examining how national social welfare is affected when migration and mobility become an integral part of everyday life this book moves our understanding of social protection from the national to the transnational

Hollenbach, 2008-04-30 Of the over 33 million refugees and internally displaced people in the world today a disproportionate percentage are found in Africa Most have been driven from their homes by armed strife displacing people into settings that fail to meet standards for even basic human dignity Protection of the human rights of these people is highly uncertain and unpredictable Many refugee service agencies agree advocacy on behalf of the displaced is a key aspect of their task But those working in the field are so pressed by urgent crises that they can rarely analyze the requirements of advocacy systematically Yet advocacy must go beyond international law to human rights as an ethical standard to prevent displaced people from falling through the cracks of our conflicted world Refugee Rights Ethics Advocacy and Africa draws upon David Hollenbach SJ's work as founder and director of the Center for Human Rights and International Justice at Boston College to provide an analytical framework for vigorous advocacy on behalf of refugees and internally displaced people Representing both religious and secular perspectives the contributors are scholars practitioners and refugee advocates all of whom have spent time on the ground in Africa The book begins with the poignant narrative of Abebe Feyissa an Ethiopian refugee who has spent over fifteen years in a refugee camp from hell Other chapters identify the social and political conditions integral to the plight of refugees and displaced persons Topics discussed include the fundamental right to freedom of movement gender roles and the rights of women the effects of war and the importance of reconstruction and reintegration following armed conflict The book concludes with suggestions of how humanitarian groups and international organizations can help mitigate the problem of forced displacement and enforce the belief that all displaced people have the right to be treated as their human dignity demands Refugee Rights offers an important analytical resource for advocates and students of human rights It will be of particular value to practitioners working in the field
