Protestant 1807 1907 Centenary Conference Historical:

A Century of Protestant Missions in China (1807-1907) Donald MacGillivray, 1907 Handbook of Christianity in China
Nicolas Standaert, R. G. Tiedemann, 2009-12-01 The second volume on Christianity in China covers the period from 1800 to the present day dealing with the complexities of both Catholic and Protestant aspects Historical Dictionary of the Reformed Churches Robert Benedetto, Donald K. McKim, 2009-10-06 As its name implies the Reformed tradition grew out of the 16th century Protestant Reformation The Reformed churches consider themselves to be the Catholic Church reformed The movement originated in the reform efforts of Huldrych Zwingli 1484 1531 of Zurich and John Calvin 1509 1564 of Geneva Although the Reformed movement was dependent upon many Protestant leaders it was Calvin's tireless work as a writer preacher teacher and social and ecclesiastical reformer that provided a substantial body of literature and an ethos from which the Reformed tradition grew Today the Reformed churches are a multicultural multiethnic and multinational phenomenon The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Reformed Churches contains information on the major personalities events facts movements and beliefs of the Reformed churches This is done through a list of acronyms and abbreviations a chronology an introductory essay appendixes a bibliography and over 800 cross referenced dictionary entries on leaders personalities events facts movements and beliefs of the Reformed churches The Foochow Missionaries, 1847-1880 Ellsworth C. Carlson, 2020-03-23 This detailed study investigates the early decades 1847 1880 of Protestant missionary work in one of the important provincial capitals of China Missionary activities are examined from the points of view of the missionaries themselves of the British and American consuls in Foochow and of the Chinese officials in Foochow and in the Prefectural and District Cities around The author gives careful consideration to the obstacles to missionary success including sources of conflict between the missionaries and the Chinese The Wu shih shan incident of 1878 in Foochow is given special attention A Study of the Emergence and Early Development of Selected Protestant Chinese Churches in the Philippines Jean Uy Uayan, 2017-06-30 Dr Jean Uayan comprehensively weaves the story of six Protestant Chinese churches in the Philippines into the local history of their individual settings in this important study Uncovering new insight and historical information from extensive primary and secondary sources Uayan presents a rich and previously unacknowledged heritage and support from four American mission organisations during the US occupation from 1898 1946 The seeds sown amongst Chinese communities across the Philippines resulted in indigenous churches that took differing journeys to full independence and now are also bearing fruit in missionary activity in South Fujian China This book is an important contribution towards a global church history acknowledging the work of the Holy Spirit establishing and building up the church of Jesus Christ among the nations A Century of Protestant Missions in China (1807-1907) Being the Centenary Conference Historical Volume (Classic Reprint) D. Macgillivray, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from A Century of Protestant Missions in China 1807 1907 Being the Centenary Conference Historical Volume The original idea of this Volume was set forth by Dr Arthur H Smith in a paper in the Chinese Recorder of August 1905 entitled A Centennial History of Protestant Missions in China As he was the person originally expected to do the work his remarks will be of interest They were as follow The General Committee in charge of the arrangements for the Conference of 1907 are planning for the compilation of a compendious summary of the work of all the societies working in the Empire It was at first proposed to commit this task to a single individual but when the matter was discussed in a special meeting held May 22nd 1905 the utter impracticability of the undertaking was recognized There is no single individual whatever his acquaintance with China who could survey the whole immense field with so minute and comprehensive a vision as to be able to present it as a coordinated and harmonious whole Were there no other difficulty the limitation of time would be a fatal bar to success Under these circumstances it was unanimously voted to attempt the task by an entirely different process The Committee is communicating with the home management of all the different societies concerned and is asking each one to arrange for the preparation of a succinct summary of its own individual work in China all the manuscripts to be sent to Shanghai to be edited and eventually published in a volume or volumes which will then become a complete an authentic and a permanently valuable history of Protestant missions in China for a century In accordance with this idea circulars were sent to all the Home authorities asking for succinct historical summaries At first these were to be limited to 4 000 words each but this was modified in a subsequent circular to an average limit of 4 000 words the older Societies being given more space and the others warned that their matter might have to be editorially curtailed On January 23rd 1906 I was appointed to the post of Editorial Secretary of the volume About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Redeemed by Fire Lian, Xi, 2010-01-01 This text addresses the history and future of homegrown mass Chinese Christianity Drawing on a collection of sources the author traces the transformation of Protestant Christianity in the 20th century China from a small missionary church buffeted by antiforeignism to an indigenous opular religion energized by nationalism

Identification of Hakka Cultural Markers Grace E. Wright, 2006-09-01 The Hakka are a minority group that has been in China since at least 240 B C They have cultural markers that separate them from the majority Han Chinese Group This book separates actual cultural markers from ethnic stereotypes

The Foundation of the Catholic Mission in Hong Kong, 1841-1894 Ha Keloong Louis, 2018-06-02 The Catholic Church is one of the few institutions that have survived since the inception of the British colony She has contributed much during its development As early as 1841 she set up a mission in Hong Kong She and her various religious orders and congregations engaged in charitable works for the poor and the elderly in the early days of Hong Kong greatly relieving the burden on the newly established colonial government Today apart from religious services the Catholic Church still plays an important role in providing Hong Kong with diversified and professional services in medical care education and social welfare Historical studies on the Catholic Church in Hong Kong of a comprehensive nature are rare in comparison with other religions The reasons of this may include the complicated organizational structure of the Catholic Church and the multiple languages used in the archival documents such as Latin French Italian and Portuguese As a Catholic clergy the author of this book Fr Louis Ha is knowledgeable about the internal operation of the Church He is also familiar with many European languages which help him master the original records and guarantee the credible result of his research The contents of this book are based on the large number of documents provided by the Hong Kong Diocesan Archives Office by archives in the Vatican and in various religious orders in Europe As an objective and impartial historian Fr Louis Ha honestly pointed out the power struggle in the Church the confrontation with the government the competition between Chinese and foreign clerics In fact a candid description of the Catholic Church in Hong Kong is shown in front of the readers Definitely it is a precious reference book for the study of the local society religion education and charitable work in early Hong Kong A Century of Protestant Missions in China (1807-1907) Being the Centenary Conference Historical Volume Donald
