Psychologie Erkenntnistheorie Religionswissenschaft Ernst Troeltsch:

The Anthem Companion to Ernst Troeltsch Christopher Adair-Toteff, 2017-12-15 The Anthem Companion to Ernst Troeltsch is the first collection of essays in English devoted to the thinking of Ernst Troeltsch. The eight essays are written by scholars who have been recognized as major contributors to works on Troeltsch; many of them have published books on his theology. These essays are devoted to exploring Troeltsch's ethical, sociological, and political ideas in addition to his theological concepts. The collection aims to depict Troeltsch as a major sociologist and important philosopher in addition to being one of the most significant German theologians of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Schriften zur Religionswissenschaft und Ethik Trutz Rendtorff, 2014-04-01 In diesem Band werden Texte Ernst Troeltschs ediert, die der Kulturphilosoph und protestantische Theologe in den Jahren 1903-1912 veröffentlicht hat. In intensiver Auseinandersetzung mit der traditionellen und zeitgenössischen Religionsphilosophie, Religionswissenschaft und Ethik sucht Troeltsch einen neuartigen Zugang zum Verständnis der tatsächlichen Religion. Ernst Troeltsch and the Future of Theology John Clayton, 1976-08-12 A reassessment of the theology of the German Protestant theologian Ernst Troeltsch (1865-1923) and of his significance for contemporary theology. The six papers here presented were originally delivered at an international colloquium on Troeltsch held at the University of Lancaster. The contributors focus on the fundamental issues raised by Troeltsch, which remain central to theology today, and seek to engage him as a discussion partner in a continuing debate. Troeltsch has been unduly neglected as a theologian, a fact which is due partly to the dominance of the dialectical theology of Barth and Bultmann in Germany after the First World War. This book seeks to remedy this state of affairs by dealing critically with Troeltsch's theology as well as constructively with the issues. The papers fall into three groups: in the first, Troeltsch is considered as a Christian theologian; in the second, the possibilities of systematic and historical theology along Troeltschian lines are studied; in the third, the questions of what makes Christianity Christian and of Christian claims to exclusive truth are examined in the light of Troeltsch's work. Each of the contributors is a noted Troeltsch scholar, and the book contains an extensive bibliography which adds to its usefulness to students and scholars alike. Ernst Troeltsch and Comparative Theology Echol Lee Nix, 2010 Ernst Troeltsch and Comparative Theology examines the methodological attempts of Ernst Troeltsch and Robert Neville for discerning Christian normativity. The investigation of Troeltsch focuses on his treatment of the absoluteness of Christianity and highlights the crisis brought upon absolute religious claims by the study of the history of religions. By rejecting both the supernatural exclusive apologetic of orthodox Protestantism and the evolutionary apologetic of liberal Protestantism, Troeltsch insists that theology's method should be the history of religions method, die religionsgeschichtliche Methode. Like Troeltsch, Neville agrees with historical inquiries but, contrary to Troeltsch, Neville advances an axiological hypothesis to thinking which is founded in valuation. Neville explains the role of valuation at the imaginative level of thinking and relates it to his theory of normative truth in religious symbols. This study shows that Neville begins with Troeltsch's methodological presuppositions but achieves more normative theology than Troeltsch especially on ways in which God is engaged in symbolically shaped thinking and practice Both thinkers offer creative insights for theology that make possible a critical comparison of truth claims regarding the validity of Christianity in and for a historically conscious age

Ernst Troeltsch and the Spirit of Modern Culture Christopher Adair-Toteff, 2021-04-06 Ernst Troeltsch was a theologian and sociologist but he was also a philosopher of culture He was concerned with the spirit of the modern world throughout most of his academic life and chose to investigate a number of critical issues which he believed were especially problematic for the modern world This book is an exploration of many of the key issues It begins with an explanation of what Troeltsch believed the spirit of the modern world to be and then to explaining the debt that Troeltsch owed to Friedrich Schleiermacher for an understanding of the modern world Chapters are then devoted to Troeltsch's investigations into issues such as the relationship between church and state the role of natural law the problems of historicism and pessimism and it concludes with his observations about politics in war and in revolution This work will be of interest to those concerned with understanding the modern world

The Phenomenology of Religious Life Martin Heidegger, 2021-12-22 Scrupulously prepared and eminently readable this volume presents Heidegger's most important lectures on religion from 1920-21 Choice In the early 1920s Martin Heidegger delivered his famous lecture course Introduction to the Phenomenology of Religion at the University of Freiburg He also prepared notes for a course on The Philosophical Foundations of Medieval Mysticism that was never delivered Though he never prepared this material for publication it represents a significant evolution in his philosophical perspective Heidegger's engagements with Aristotle Neoplatonism St Paul Augustine and Martin Luther give readers a sense of what phenomenology would come to mean in the mature expression of his thought Heidegger reveals an impressive display of theological knowledge protecting Christian life experience from Greek philosophy and defending Paul against Nietzsche

Under the Spell of Freedom Hans Joas, 2024 In Under the Spell of Freedom Hans Joas deconstructs the grand Hegelian narrative of human history as the self-realization of the idea of freedom setting as a counterpart the sketches of a theory of the emergence of moral universalism He takes the classical views of Hegel and his emphasis on the role of Protestant Christianity and the extremely negative views about Christianity in the work of the philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche to elaborate on this new understanding of religion and freedom which encompasses a range of intellectual traditions and avoids Eurocentrism Joas answers the empirical question of when where why and how such a moral universalism emerged and developed

The Power of the Sacred Hans Joas, 2021-02-16 In The Power of the Sacred Hans Joas develops a new sociological theory of religion by reconstructing existing scientific theories of religion from the eighteenth century to the present Through a critical reading and reassessment of key texts Joas proposes an alternative to the narratives of disenchantment and secularization which have dominated debates on the topic He further offers the most thorough reconstruction of the meaning of this concept demonstrates how problematic it is for an appropriate understanding of religion in modernity and presents the basic features of an alternative Psychologie und Erkenntnistheorie in der Religionswissenschaft Ernst Troeltsch, 1922 The Future of the Study of Religion Slavica Jakelic, Lori Pearson, 2018-08-14 This volume brings together diverse voices from various fields within religious and theological studies for a conversation about the proper objects goals and methods for the study of religion in the twenty first century It approaches these questions by way of the most recent contemporary challenges debates and developments in the field and provides a forum in which contending perspectives are tested and contested by their proponents and opponents Contributors address topics such as the connection between the normative and the scientific approaches to the study of religion the meaning of religion in a context of globalization the relation between religious studies and religious traditions the viability of comparative and cultural studies of religious phenomena and the future of gender studies in religion
