Migrations And Mobilities Citizenship Borders And Gender:

Migrations and Mobilities Seyla Benhabib, Judith Resnik, 2009-03-01 Migrations and Mobilities Seyla Benhabib, Judith Resnik, 2009-03 This work discusses the unprecedented challenges that the movement of peoples across national borders poses for the people involved as well as for the places to which they travel and their countries of origin Migrations and Mobilities Seyla Benhabib, Judith Resnik, 2009-03-01 Bibliography http://www.nyupress.org/webchapters/9780814775998_benhabib_biblio.pdf In an increasingly globalized world the movement of peoples across national borders is posing unprecedented challenges for the people involved as well as for the places to which they travel and their countries of origin Citizenship is now a topic in focus around the world but much of that discussion takes place without sufficient attention to the women men and children in and out of families whose statuses and treatments depend upon how countries view their arrival As essays in this volume detail both the practices and theories of citizenship need to be reappraised in light of the array of persons and of twentieth century commitments to their dignity and equality Migrations and Mobilities uniquely situates gender in the context of ongoing urgent conversations about globalization citizenship and the meaning of borders Following an introductory essay by editors Seyla Benhabib and Judith Resnik that addresses the parameters and implications of gendered migration the interdisciplinary contributors consider a wide range of issues from workers rights to children s rights from theories of the nation state and federalism to obligations under transnational human rights conventions Together the essays in this path breaking collection force us to consider the pivotal role that gender should play in reconceiving the nature of citizenship in the contemporary transnational world Contributors Seyla Benhabib Jacqueline Bhabha Linda Bosniak Catherine Dauvergne Talia Inlander Vicki C Jackson David Jacobson Linda K Kerber Audrey Macklin Angela Means Valentine M Moghadam Patrizia Nanz Aihwa Ong Cynthia Patterson Judith Resnik and Sarah K van Walsum The International Handbook on Gender, Migration and Transnationalism Laura Oso, Natalia Ribas-Mateos, 2013-01-01 The highly unique International Handbook on Gender Migration and Transnationalism represents a state of the art review of the critical importance of the links between gender and migration in a globalizing world It draws on original largely field based contributions by authors across a range of disciplinary provenances worldwide This unprecedented and ambitious Handbook addresses core debates on issues of gender migration transnationalism and development from a migrationdevelopment nexus Using an analytical approach it explores the influence of global changes namely the analysis of transnational migration flows from the perspective of the articulation of production and reproduction chains Particular attention is paid to so called global care chains with new models developed around the emerging trends played out by women in contemporary mobility flows This path breaking Handbook will provide a thought provoking read for a multidisciplinary audience of academics researchers and students of social science disciplines encompassing economics sociology geography demography political science and political sociology migration studies family and gender studies and labour markets The Handbook will also be of major interest to and importance for local and national governments international agencies and their policymakers and administrators Gender, Migration and the Media Myria Georgiou, 2014-06-11 This volume brings together a number of experts who explore conceptual and policy challenges as well as empirical realities associated with gender and migration in highly mediated societies The need to more systematically address the gendered experience of migration especially in relation to political and cultural representation is in the core of the discussions that unfold in this book The book's chapters address a number of critical questions in relation to the representation of women as members of communities and as outsiders in culturally diverse societies In doing so the collection pays particular attention to the sphere of media and communications Mediated communication has become crucially important in the construction of meanings of identity and citizenship while the media have taken centre stage in framing debates on migration border control and gender representations in culturally diverse societies Gender Migration and the Media presents a cross cultural and interdisciplinary understanding of the practices and the consequences of mediated communication for identity and citizenship This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Gender and Citizenship in Historical and Transnational Perspective Anne Epstein, Rachel Fuchs, 2017-09-16 With gender as its central focus this book offers a transnational multi faceted understanding of citizenship as legislated imagined and exercised since the late eighteenth century Framed around three crosscutting themes agency space and borders leading scholars demonstrate what historians can bring to the study of citizenship and its evolving relationship with the theory and practice of democracy and how we can make the concept of citizenship operational for studying past societies and cultures The essays examine the past interactions of women and men with public authorities their participation in civic life within various kinds of polities and the meanings they attached to their actions In analyzing the way gender operated both to promote and to inhibit civic consciousness action and practice this book advances our knowledge about the history of citizenship and the evolution of the modern state Gender, Migration and Categorisation Deirdre M.

Moloney, 2025-10-01 All people are equal according to Thomas Jefferson but all migrants are not This volume looks at how they are distinguished in France the United States Turkey Canada Mexico the Netherlands Sweden and Denmark made through history between migrants and how these were justified in policies and public debates The chapters form a triptych addressing in three clusters the problematization of questions such as who is a refugee who is family and what is difference The chapters in this volume show that these are not separate issues They intersect in ways that vary according to countries of origin and settlement economic climate geopolitical situation as well as by gender and by class ethnicity religion and sexual orientation of the migrants Global Youth Migration and Gendered Modalities Glenda Tibe Bonifacio, 2019-04-17 Youth migration is a global phenomenon and it is gendered This collection presents original studies on gender and youth migration from the 19th century onwards from international and interdisciplinary perspectives An international group of contributors explore the imperial histories of youth migration their identities and sexualities the impact of education policies and practices and the roles contribution and challenges of young migrants in certain industries and services as well as in communities These cross disciplinary themes include cases from Albania Bangladesh Canada Ethiopia France Hungary Italy Philippines Senegal Syria Turkey the United Kingdom and the United States Gender and Migration Caroline B. Brettell, 2017-01-19 Gender roles relations and ideologies are major aspects of migration This timely book argues that understanding gender relations is vital to a full and more nuanced explanation of both the causes and the consequences of migration in the past and at present Through an exploration of gendered labor markets laws and policies and the transnational model of migration Caroline Brettell tackles a variety of issues such as how gender shapes the roles that men and women play in the construction of immigrant family and community life debates concerning transnational motherhood and how gender structures the immigrant experience for men and women more broadly This book will appeal to students and scholars of immigration race and ethnicity and gender studies and offers a definitive guide to the key conceptual issues surrounding gender and migration
