Exploring the 'Legal' in Socio-Legal Studies David Cowan, Daniel Wincott, 2019-03-01 Socio legal studies have had an ambivalent relationship with the legal one of its defining aspects but at the same time one that the discipline has sought to transcend or even leave behind While socio legal studies benefit hugely from the insights methods and theories of other social science and humanity disciplines the contributions to Exploring the Legal in Socio Legal Studies illustrate the value of a focus on the legal The chapters in this book combine traditional legal materials and analyses with other ways of engaging empirically with the legal They illustrate the rich potential of the legal as a site both for theoretical and methodological reflection and for case study analysis Taken as a whole this volume demonstrates that methodological discussion is most helpful when rooted in empirical cases and that the best case studies also help us to develop our methodologies Bringing methodology and empirical analysis together offers an opportunity to reflect on socio legal studies and develop the discipline in productive new directions

New Challenges to Ageing in the Rural North Päivi Naskali, Joan R. Harbison, Shahnaj Begum, 2019-08-26 This book provides an underexplored view of ageing one that conceives older people as valuable resources in their communities as active citizens with both voice and an agency that includes the capacity for resistance It acknowledges that becoming old with dignity means also paying attention to caring good health services and the possibility of good death The book defines age and ageing as multiple culturally and historically constructed phenomena that are only loosely connected to the years of one's life In focusing on the peripheral North located in the Nordic Canadian and Russian north it highlights important questions and viewpoints that can be found and adapted to other rural areas The book answers the following questions What is the relevance of legislation and international legal agreements in ensuring the rights of elderly people under political and economic changes What challenges do geographic isolation changing age structure and cultural and ecological transformations pose to possibilities for meeting older people's needs for engagement in society as well as for their care As such this book will be of interest to all those working in population aging

Research Handbook on EU Labour Law Alan Bogg, Cathryn Costello, A.C.L. Davies, 2016-12-30 Research Handbook on EU Labour Law features contributions from leading scholars in the field Part I addresses cross cutting themes such as the relationship between EU law and national law the role of human rights in EU labour law and the impact of austerity measures In Part II the contributors focus on topics in individual and collective labour law at EU level including working time and job security Finally Part III offers a comprehensive overview of the EU's interventions in equality law

Introducing Board Gender Diversity to Sri Lanka Menaka Angammana, 2023-03-02 Through a socio legal lens this book focuses on the feasibility of implementing board gender diversity rules in Sri Lanka It demonstrates that board gender diversity rules could be a valuable tool for corporate governance development and to promote gender equality in society The International Financial Institutions IFIs have reasoned that good corporate governance practices can develop the economy by attracting investors and securing foreign direct investment Accordingly these IFIs have included corporate governance reform as a condition for funding to developing countries Among these reforms board gender diversity is acknowledged as a legal concept that is capable of improving corporate governance practices and promoting gender equality in society The benefits to corporate governance often referred to as the economic benefits of the concept are based on the contribution women directors can make towards advancing board effectiveness The equality benefits underpinning this strategy depict the manner in which gender equality could be promoted by board gender diversity rules Sri Lanka is thus an illustrative example of a developing country forced by IFIs to improve its corporate governance practices as a step towards advancing economic growth However the Sri Lankan legislators have not yet introduced board gender diversity rules as a measure to improve corporate governance practices within the country This book addresses some of the ways in which board gender diversity rules could be introduced to Sri Lanka

Exploring the 'Socio' of Socio-Legal Studies Dermot Feenan, 2017-03-01 In this insightful collection a broad range of scholars analyzes a core issue for socio legal studies what is understood by the socio of the socio legal Drawing from legal theory cultural studies and social policy the collection s wide scope of themes and topics provides an important stock take and analysis of the socio legal field

At the End of Property Veit Braun, 2024-06-25 Recent decades have witnessed the creation of new types of property systems ranging from data ownership to national control over genetic resources This trend has significant implications for wealth distribution and our understanding of who can own what This book explores the idea of ownership in the realm of plant breeding revealing how plants have been legally and materially transformed into property It highlights the controversial aspects of turning seeds plants and genes into property and how this endangers the viability of the seed industry Examining ownership not simply as a legal concept but as a bundle of laws practices and technologies this is a valuable contribution that will interest scholars of intellectual property studies the anthropology of markets science and technology studies and related fields

Change and Continuity Mark P. Thomas, Leah F. Vosko, Carlo Fanelli, Olena Lyubchenko, 2019-08-28 In a period characterized by growing social inequality precarious work the legacies of settler colonialism and the emergence of new social movements Change and Continuity presents innovative interdisciplinary research as a guide to understanding Canada s political economy and a contribution to progressive social change Assessing the legacy of the Canadian political economy tradition a broad body of social science research on power inequality and change in society the essays in this volume offer insight into contemporary issues and chart new directions for future study Chapters from both emerging and established scholars expand the boundaries of Canadian political economy research seeking new understandings of the forces that shape society the ensuing conflicts and contradictions and the potential for social justice Engaging with interconnected topics that include shifts in immigration policy labour market restructuring settler colonialism the experiences of people with disabilities and the revitalization of workers movements this collection builds upon and deepens critical analysis of Canadian society and considers its application to contexts beyond Canada The latest in a series of related volumes on Canadian political economy Change and Continuity explores the past present and potential futures of the discipline in a global context offering insight into some of the most pressing issues of our time

Intersex Embodiment Fae Garland, Mitchell Travis, 2022-11-22 This book examines the divergent medical political and legal constructions of intersex The authors use empirical data to explore how intersex people are embodied through these frameworks which in turn influence their lived experiences Through their analysis the authors reveal the factors that motivate and influence the way in which policy makers and legislators approach the area of intersex rights They reflect on the limitations of law as the primary vehicle in challenging healthcare s framing of intersex as a disorder in need of fixing Finally they offer a more holistic account of intersex justice which is underpinned by psychosocial support and bodily integrity

Lawyers in 21st-Century Societies Richard L Abel, Ole Hammerslev, Hilary Sommerlad, Ulrike Schultz, 2020-04-02 The world s legal professions have undergone dramatic changes in the 30 years since publication of the landmark three volume Lawyers in Society which launched comparative sociological studies of lawyers This is the first of two volumes in which scholars from a wide range of disciplines countries and cultures document and analyse those changes The present volume presents reports on 46 countries with broad coverage of North America Western Europe Latin America Asia Australia North Africa and the Middle East sub Saharan Africa and former communist countries These national reports address the impact of globalisation and neoliberalism on national legal professions the relationship of lawyers and their professional associations to the state and tensions between state and citizenship changes in lawyer demography rapidly growing numbers and the profession s efforts to retain control the entry of women and obstacles to full gender equality ethnic diversity legal education the proliferation of institutions and pedagogic innovation the regulation of lawyers structures of production especially the growth of large firms and the impact of technology and paraprofessionals the distribution of lawyers across roles and access to justice state funded legal aid and pro bono services The juxtaposition of the reports reveals the dramatic transformations of professional rationales labour markets and working practices and the multiple contingencies of the role of lawyers in societies experiencing increasing juridification within a new geopolitical order

Decentring Urban Governance Mark Bevir, Kim McKee, Peter Matthews, 2017-09-20 Decentring Urban Governance seeks to rethink governance not as a particular state formation but as the diverse policies emerging associated with the impact of modernist social science on policy making considering the diverse meanings that inspire governing practices across time space and policy sectors in urban context Taking an interdisciplinary approach the book goes beyond neoliberalism and is interested in other webs of meaning through which actors encounter interpret and evaluate social science which have received less analytical attention All these different webs of meaning elite narratives social science and local traditions influence patterns of action The book creates an analytical space by which to consider situated agency and localised resistance to the discourses and policies of political elites including the myriad ways in which local actors have resisted practices of governance on the ground This text will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners of urban governance governance and more broadly to the social sciences housing social policy law and welfare studies
