Preaching And Theology Preaching And Its Partners:

Shaping the Claim Marvin A. McMickle, 2008-09-03 Shaping the Claim helps the preacher discover the core of the message to be preached the sermonic claim In order to be effective says McMickle a sermon needs to address the hearers at three distinct levels the head or the intellect the heart or passion and conviction and the hand or an expected and desired response In order to discover the biblical claim that a sermon should make upon a particular congregation at a particular time McMickle presents a helpful three step process 1 What 2 So What and 3 Now What The book is keyed to online sermon samples and other Web based features such as sermon illustrations and art Preaching as Local Theology and Folk Art Leonora Tubbs Tisdale, 1997 Showing that good sermons are really local theology and folk art Princeton s Leonora Tubbs Tisdale tells how to analyze a congregation to fit a sermon to the audience The book then gives practical help for preparing and delivering sermons that are meaningful and appropriate Tisdale draws from contextual theology and congregational studies Women Preaching Eunjo Mary Kim, 2009-08-01 Considering the lack of resources that exists in the study of women s preaching Kim makes a very significant contribution to the development of homiletics as it joins together the history of women preachers with theological reflection from other women preachers as well as herself It is the author s hope that this book will provide a broader and deeper basis for the theology of preaching as well as practical ways in which preachers can improve their own preaching by looking at a woman s perspective Kim s ground breaking book is the first comprehensive narrative of women preachers from the Second Testament to the Second Millennium Through Kim s eyes we see women as a constant and forceful if often subversive presence in Christian preaching After focusing on the medieval period the Reformation and the early twentieth century the author brings her autobiography close to the surface as she leads us to consider women and the politics of God in the colonial and post colonial eras with a special focus on Asia The book climaxes with a call to envision preaching as partnership with God that facilitates partnership in the church and world in the service of liberation Ronald J Allen Nettie Sweeney and Hugh Th Miller Professor of Professor of Preaching and New Testament Christian Theological Seminary Indianapolis Indiana Kim s exciting exploration of the history of women preachers illuminates the remarkable perseverance of God and the women who partner with God to bring words of peace and transformation to the world Those churches that continue to deny women s preaching do more than simply perpetuate an inequality They also quench the Spirit who years to transform us co workers in the liberative work of God Cliff Guthrie Associate Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Studies Bangor Theological Seminary Bangor Maine Preaching and Music Catherine E. Williams, 2025-03-31 In the current conversation around what makes preaching compelling Williams voice is distinct compelling sermons allow music to do its share of the preaching as only music can Whether through musically book ending the sermon drawing on popular music for illustrations or turning a hymn into a series of mini sermons this volume explores several accessible ways to enrich sermon preparation and delivery by partnering sermon and song Williams is a worthy guide with degrees in both church music and homiletics and with sensitivity drawn from her pastoral background With insightful clarity and practiced wisdom she engages both preachers and musicians in each chapter This book is a rich resource for the homiletician s syllabus the preacher s bookshelf and the music minister s library Preaching as a Theological Task

David Buttrick, Thomas G. Long, Edward Farley, 1996-01-01 How do particular world situations impact preaching How does a preacher use the gospel and Scripture to speak to those situations This volume in honor of homiletician David Buttrick explores the complex and important relationships between world gospel and Scripture and their relevance for preaching theology This book is for those seeking thoughtful and challenging new ways to approach the preaching task now and into the twenty first century The Renewal of Preaching in the Twenty-first Century, Second Edition David J.

Randolph, 2008-07-01 Deep faith meets high tech here in The Renewal of Preaching in the Twenty first Century A communications revolution is sweeping through the churches leaving some on fire and others burned out This work shows what makes the difference for church leaders and communities who are using new media to advance Christian preaching Join them by recovering the great tradition and expanding it through creative use encouraged by artists and filmmakers as well as preachers and professors This work explores ways to maximize the promise of preaching and confront the perils leading to the renewal of church and society Beginning with review of the situation today we proceed step by step through the preparation and presentation of the sermon leading to transformation The sermon in the local parish is seen as the microcosm of the macrocosm that is the communication of God s good news Preaching from Inside the Story Jeffrey W.

Frymire, 2022-06-02 Preaching from Inside the Story is a book that seeks to carve out an understanding of narrative preaching in an age where there is little agreement about its nature and practice Capitalizing on the works of Craddock and Lowry it seeks to find an expanded palette upon which the preacher may engage the larger canvas of narrative preaching This book will engage the mind by introducing neuroscientific understandings of creativity build upon the foundations of the philosophy of stories by engaging Aristotle s foundational understanding of narrative and renew the Lowry Loop by expanding this seminal work and how it should be understood in our current culture Preaching from Inside the Story breaks new ground by encouraging preachers to move inside stories and tell them from the inside out providing a positive effect thereby affording non narrative preachers to connect with storytelling principles Ultimately it is filled with examples of how to do narrative in a very practical way However in showing these practical examples the reader is involved in a deep analysis of those narrative sermons and how they fit into an overall narrative understanding of preaching In the final analysis it invites the reader to take a fresh journey into narrative preaching A Theology of Preaching Richard Lischer, 2001-06-08

Richard Lischer s book is a stirring affirmation of preaching s importance as a major enterprise in its own right It is he writes a theological preface whose aim is to show how theology informs preaching and how preaching as a kerygmatic oral practical activity informs theology and brings it to its final form of expression Dr Lischer points to the historically negative results of preaching's exclusion from theology and then shows the benefits derived from the proper interaction of the two disciplines. As he elaborates on this theme, he explores the centrality of the Resurrection in both theology and preaching, the relation of the law and the gospel, and how preaching calls upon theology to recover its oral aural foundation. For Lischer, the act of preaching is an exercise of the preacher's imagination. The real work of imagination is not inserting clever stories or esthetically pleasing images into the argument of the sermon. It is knowing how to read texts in such a way that they will be allowed to function according to their original power and intent. The Mission of Preaching Patrick W. T. Johnson, 2015-02-25

We hear plenty of discussion about missional theology, missional leadership, and missional church planting. But what about missional preaching? In this groundbreaking work, Patrick W. T. Johnson develops a new missional homiletic to aid preachers in their witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ in this post-Christendom world. Ways of the Word Sally A. Brown, Luke A. Powery, 2016-05-19 Preaching and the discipline of preaching is at a crossroads. The changing realities of church and theological education, the diversity of our classrooms, and our increasingly complex community contexts leave us in search of tools to help train a rising generation of preachers for a future whose contours are far from clear. The questions are immense: How to support preachers in contexts that are diverse religiously, culturally, and ethnically, both inside and outside the church? How to help students take varied contexts seriously as they are formed as leaders? In Ways of the Word, a dynamic team of master preachers brings much needed help. Different in race, gender, age, and tradition, both Sally A. Brown and Luke A. Powery speak with one voice: their belief that preaching is Spirit-empowered, even an embodied, vocalized, actively received here and now witness to the ongoing work of God in the world. They aspire to help students and preachers alike to reflect on a journey of learning by doing. They aim to help preachers become more attuned to the Spirit, more adept in preaching's component skills, and more self-aware about all that is at stake in proclaiming the redemptive work of God in specific contexts.
