Not All That Glitters:

All That Glitters Is Not God A.K.B. Kumar, 2014-01-31 This fiction All that Glitters Is Not God is the reader's own story because while reading you'll realize that you yourself are the writer and the reader creator and creation hero and villain. The climax occurs in your period of living in your native place where you're the hot and the cold beautiful and ugly hard and soft rude and gentle ups and downs fire and water matters supporting birth and death also beneficial and harmful bacteria. Thus you're the god and the devil in this book. You may or may not grant this ecological novel as your autobiographical story as the narrator is a tree and all the characters places times and reasons in this book are imaginary. You'd love to imbibe the italic wording used by the tree is alien to the time and place of the occurrence of the story especially the slang indication and figures of speech like simile and metaphor. If you find the hero tree is mettlesome and metaphysical it is with the academic support of his mother earth a key protagonist. And you know the earth is the oldest largest and greatest university ever established by the Almighty God. Not All that Glitters Thomas Michael Power, 1993 All That Glitters Isn't Gold Kelvin Sawyer, 2010-11-11 What do you do when a circumstance happens that is so severe you feel betrayed in the worst way? What do you do when you fall in love with someone who is everything you are not looking for? What do you do when you are gay and fall in love with someone who is straight? Meet Corey Jenkins. He was raised in a religious two-parent household in Brooklyn, New York. Even though he was raised in the church, he learned at the age of five that he was attracted to boys. To satisfy his family and society, he played the straight game and dated girls until his junior year in high school. That is when everything changed. That is when Corey Jenkins met Raymond Perez. Corey had no idea that after meeting Raymond, his life would change forever. Raymond introduced Corey to a world of lust, greed, and ecstasy. Along his journey, Corey met his best friends Tina and Isaac. Throughout the years, the three of them went through circumstances that tested their friendship. A true friendship is supposed to last forever. Corey learned quickly that all that glitters isn't gold. All That Glitters Isn't Old Gabby Allan, 2023-07-25 The latest in the delightful cozy mystery series set off the coast of California perfect for fans of Jasmine Guillory and Abby Collette.
