BOOK JACKET

Detection and Prevention of Identity-Based Bullying Britney Brinkman, 2015-10-05 Bullying in schools has become the focus of a growing body of literature however much of that work diminishes the role of social context social identities and prejudices despite extensive research evidence suggesting that many victims of bullying are targeted because of an aspect of their social identity This book demonstrates how the prevention and intervention of this phenomenon termed identity based bullying is a social justice issue Expanding beyond bullying prevention that focuses on individual perpetrators the book examines identity based bullying in schools as a microcosm of larger systemic tensions and conflicts The author utilizes a social constructivist perspective to understand the experiences of children as active agents in their own lives She also provides an international framework to describe the impact of culture social structures and politics from the US and the UK Challenges and barriers to addressing identity based bullying are explored and recommendations are made for best practices for teachers administrators and mental health professionals to prevent and respond to identity based bullying

Comprehensive Children's Mental Health Services in Schools and Communities Robyn S. Hess, Rick Jay Short, Cynthia E. Hazel, 2013-06-19 Despite the growing emphasis on a population based training and service delivery model for school psychology few resources exist to provide guidance concerning how such services might be conceptualized and put into place In this book the authors propose a public health model for comprehensive children's mental health services that expands rather than replaces the traditional model of school psychology The background and theoretical perspective for this public health model are discussed as an important way to solve problems and accomplish goals in schools after which the authors outline and develop a clear practical procedure for implementing and evaluating programs based on public health ideas A case study in one elementary school walks readers through the stages of applying a public health model detailing the key steps of each stage Finally the authors consider the changes to the role of school psychologist that will be required to practice a public health problem solving model Accompanying downloadable resources contain sample forms handouts and other valuable materials that will be of use to school psychologists implementing this public health model in their schools

Preventing Eating-Related and Weight-Related Disorders Gail L. McVey, Michael P. Levine, Niva Piran, H. Bruce Ferguson, 2013-01-24 This book presents a collection of writings by expert researchers from Canada the United States and Australia who are committed to finding common cause and common ground in the prevention of eating disorders and obesity The ten chapters in this book seek to create a new public health approach to the prevention of weight related disorders one that counters the confusion and frustration from public policies messages and programs that recipients of prevention efforts often experience The first section looks at prevention from a public health perspective and the second section highlights theories from risk and resilience research that can inform the prevention of weight related disorders The contributions are varied in their theories and models but woven throughout is the theme of collaboration in changing public institutions and social systems that promotes universal prevention and fosters mental health and resilience Unique methods of linking systems and fostering partnerships across sectors and disciplines are highlighted and readers are exposed to innovative ideas of how to move the field of prevention science forward to reduce the onset of negative body image unhealthy weight management eating disorders and disordered eating Preventing Eating Related and Weight Related Disorders is the second in a series of titles from The Community Health Systems Resource Group at The Hospital for Sick Children This series will educate researchers policy makers students practitioners and interested stakeholders on such topics as early intervention in psychosis aggressive behaviour problems eating related disorders and marginalized youth in educational contexts

Interventions in Career Design and Education Valérie Cohen-Scali, Jacques Pouyaud, Marek Podgórný, Violetta Drabik-Podgórná, Gabriela Aisenson, Jean Luc Bernaud, Issa Abdou Moumoula, Jean Guichard, 2018-11-29 This book is the product of a series of reflections by career counseling and guidance specialists on a question central to society How can career and life design interventions contribute to fair and sustainable development and to the implementation of decent work all over the world This question was formulated by Professor J Guichard the director of the UNESCO Chair in Lifelong Guidance and counseling at the University of Wrocław Poland The researchers involved in this Chair's activities proposed answers which form the chapters of this book These reflections emphasize the need to focus on the study and implementation of certain central psychological processes which can enable individuals to face the main challenges of our society The contributions also propose new avenues of intervention for career counseling and guidance The entire book is the bedrock of a program of research and interventions to be implemented in order that the field of career counseling and guidance plays a key role for individuals who must design their lives in a rapidly changing and ever more complex context This book is therefore a major scientific contribution and marks a turning point for researchers and practitioners in career counseling and guidance and for all professionals who support the self construction of individuals in the 21st century The authors draw on a diverse range of disciplines and research traditions and offer readers a rich array of insights helping them reflect on how career guidance can be mobilised to serve citizens in a world that is increasingly challenged by complex seemingly intractable problems A central crosscutting concern is the ways in which career guidance can foster well being by facilitating access to meaningful and fulfilling work in contexts that promote equity social justice and dignity for all While engaging the micro worlds of individuals and throwing light on their valiant efforts to design a life that realises their hopes and aspirations it is a commendable feature of many of these papers that they do not eschew the societal indeed planetary stage across which personal dramas are enacted Prof Ronald G Sultana Director Euro Mediterranean Centre for Educational Research University of Malta The primary strengths are the authors capacity to provide forward thinking perspectives on the important issue of sustainable lifelong interventions and career design in its broadest sense The volume offers depth in a way of thinking that is pertinent to the 21st century and provokes both an interest in the further study of this domain as well as providing tools and references for novice and experienced researchers and professionals The book is sure to become a major
