Reading Autobiography A Guide For Interpreting Life Narratives Second Edition:

Reading Autobiography Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 2010 projects and an extensive bibliography Book Jacket Life Narratives and Youth Culture Kate Douglas, Anna Poletti, 2016-12-26 This book considers the largely under recognised contribution that young writers have made to life writing genres such as memoir letter writing and diaries as well as their innovative use of independent and social media The authors argue that these contributions have been historically silenced subsumed within other literary genres culturally marginalised or co opted for political ends Furthermore the book considers how life narrative is an important means for youth agency and cultural participation By engaging in private and public modes of self representation young people have contested public discourses around the representation of youth including media health and welfare and legal discourses and found means for re engaging and re appropriating self images and representations Locating their research within broader theoretical debates from childhood and youth studies youth creative practice and associated cultural implications youth citizenship and autonomy the rights of the child generations and power relationships Poletti and Douglas also position their inquiry within life narrative scholarship and wider discussions of self representation from the margins representations of conflict and trauma and theories of ethical scholarship Italian Women Filmmakers and the Gendered Screen Maristella Cantini, 2013-12-17 Featuring essays by top scholars and interviews with acclaimed directors this book examines Italian women s authorship in film and their visions of reality The contributors use feminist film criticism in the analysis of their works and give direct voices to the artists who are constantly excluded by the conventional Italian film criticism Critical Neurodiversity Studies Jenny Bergenmar, Louise Creechan, Anna Stenning, 2025-07-10 This landmark volume for neurodiversity studies introduces a new more inclusive field of scholarship for literary and cultural studies Bringing together scholars and writers from across Europe it explores the revolutionary potential of neurodivergent scholarly practice and demonstrates that there is no such thing as a normal response to cultural production Drawing on critical disability studies to highlight the ideology behind dominant notions of ability it moves beyond representations of neurodivergent characters and highlights the entanglement of sensory and cognitive difference with both cultural practices and social status Combining the recent turn towards psychiatric depathologisation with insights from feminist queer intersectional and critical race theory this volume aims to amplify the epistemic authority of those who have been subject to marginalisation because of the ways we are taught to read and value literary culture In essence this volume reveals what it means to read write and love literature and the arts as a neurodivergent person Performativity, Cultural Construction, and the Graphic Narrative Leigh Anne Howard, Susanna Hoeness-Krupsaw, 2019-09-11 Performativity Cultural Construction and the Graphic Narrative draws on performance studies scholarship to understand the social impact of graphic novels and their sociopolitical function Addressing issues of race gender ethnicity race war mental illness and the environment the volume encompasses the diversity and variety inherent in the graphic narrative medium Informed by the scholarship of Dwight Conquergood and his model for performance praxis this collection of essays makes links between these seemingly disparate areas of study to open new avenues of research for comics and graphic narratives An international team of authors offer a detailed analysis of new and classical graphic texts from Britain Iran India and Canada as well as the United States Performance Social Construction and the Graphic Narrative draws on performance studies scholarship to understand the social impact of graphic novels and their sociopolitical function Addressing issues of race gender ethnicity race war mental illness and the environment the volume encompasses the diversity and variety inherent in the graphic narrative medium This book will be of interest to students and scholars in the areas of communication literature comics studies performance studies sociology languages English and gender studies and anyone with an interest in deepening their acquaintance with and understanding of the potential of graphic narratives

Beyond Being Koelies and Kantráki Margriet Fokken, 2018 This book traces the self positioning of Hindostani people in the face of British and Dutch colonial practices Originally from India and shipped to the Dutch colony of Suriname after the abolition of slavery the Hindostani served as contract labourers to keep the plantation system afloat from 1873 Central to the book is the perspective of the Hindostani themselves We travel alongside the Hindostani from the moment they were recruited and their movement through the depots awaiting shipment their travel experiences their arrival in Suriname relocation to plantations and their dispersal following the end of their contracts either as city workers or farmers All along the book poses the question of identification how did Hindostani make sense of themselves their fellow Hindostani and Surinamese society Stereotyped images make way for insight in lived experience of lower and higher caste Hindus and Muslims men and women

The Comics of Julie Doucet and Gabrielle Bell Tahneer Oksman, Seamus O'Malley, 2018-12-05 Winner of the 2020 Comics Studies Society Edited Book Prize Contributions by Kylie Cardell Aaron Comethbus Margaret Galvan Sarah Hildebrand Frederik Byrn K hlert Tahneer Oksman Seamus O Malley Annie Mok Dan Nadel Natalie Pendergast Sarah Richardson Jessica Stark and James Yeh In a self reflexive way Julie Doucet s and Gabrielle Bell s comics though often autobiographical defy easy categorization In this volume editors Tahneer Oksman and Seamus O Malley regard Doucet s and Bell s art as actively feminist not only because they offer women s perspectives but because they do so by provocatively bringing up the complicated multivalent frameworks of such engagements While each artist has a unique perspective style and worldview the essays in this book investigate their shared investments in formal innovation and experimentation and in playing with questions of the autobiographical the fantastic and the spaces in between Doucet is a Canadian underground cartoonist known for her autobiographical works such as Dirty Plotte and My New York Diary Meanwhile Bell is a British American cartoonist best known for her intensely introspective semiautobiographical comics and graphic memoirs such as the Lucky series and Cecil and Jordan in New York By pairing Doucet alongside Bell the book recognizes the significance of female networks and the social and cultural connections associations and conditions that shape every work of art In addition to original essays this volume republishes interviews with the artists By reading Doucet s and Bell s comics together in this volume housed in a series devoted to single creator studies the book shows how despite the importance of finding a place inside yourself to create this space seems always for better or worse a shared space culled from and subject to surrounding lives experiences and subjectivities

Beat Myths in Literature Estibaliz Encarnación-Pinedo,2023-09-22 Beat Myths in Literature reassesses the work of women poets associated with the Beat Generation from the critical lens of revisionist discourses Using the metaphor and the critical lens of looking back an act infused with feminist implications after Adrienne Rich 1972 the volume focuses on poetry fiction and autobiographical writing to analyze the different ways in which Beat women used revisionist discourses to refashion the Beat Generation and establish themselves as literary and artistic subjects Offering the first comprehensive study of the use of mythology in the Beat Generation Beat Myths in Literature Revisionist Strategies in Beat Women focuses on the specific re writing or revisioning of mythical texts As such it studies the ways in which Beat poets incorporate mythology into their works both through the feminist reinvention or appropriation of ancient myths but also by debunking more contemporary myths used to contain women in particular social and artistic roles Furthermore this volume expands Rich s notion of re vision considering memoirs and autobiographies as factual and fictional re interpretations of history Seen through the eyes of revisionist studies and the poets investment in personal myth the book establishes new points of entrance into works that allow us to explore the feminist political and poetical relevance of the work of Beat women

Silence is my Habitat Jessica White,2025-09-30 A tactile and olfactory journey through a silent ecosystem Jessica White has been deaf since she was four years old Where an autobiography or biography narrates the story of a person s life an ecobiography dwells on a person s interaction with their ecosystem and how this shapes their sense of self The essays that follow detail how deafness encouraged and shaped her relationship with the natural world Deafness made me observant and quiet Because I could not hear enough to join in on conversations my attention often wandered or was absorbed by sensations other than sound morning sun on my forearms the thick sweet scent of flowering oleanders the triangular shadow of a flock of galahs flying overhead On the long bus trips between school and home I watched the sorghum burnishing as it ripened and kangaroos bounding through wheat stubble in the late afternoons into trees that cast long shadows I felt the bus shake as it rattled over cattle grids or veered into the corrugations on the gravel roads These essays consider how deafness shapes the interfaces between the writer and particular environments given how she can only hear particular sounds as she navigates the world through the tactile and olfactory

Remembering Contentious Lives Duygu Erbil,Ann Rigney,Clara Vlessing,2025-01-01 This collection addresses two interrelated questions How are the lived experiences of contention remembered in the form of auto biography How is life writing as an act of cultural remembrance used in activism Building on cutting edge scholarship on the socio political potential of narrating lived experience this volume takes life writing as a new point of observation on the entanglement between memory and activism This is an open access
