Real Bitches Dont Fold:

The Man Who Folded Himself David Gerrold, 2011-02-02 This classic work of science fiction is widely considered to be the ultimate time travel novel When Daniel Eakins inherits a time machine he soon realizes that he has enormous power to shape the course of history He can foil terrorists prevent assassinations or just make some fast money at the racetrack And if he doesn't like the results of the change he can simply go back in time and talk himself out of making it But Dan soon finds that there are limits to his powers and forces beyond his control

Folded Notes from High School Matt Boren, 2018-04-03 A status obsessed senior unexpectedly falls for a freshman because of his Danny Zuko audition in their high school's production of Grease in this outrageously funny epistolary novel set in 1991 Matt Boren brilliantly captures the voices of students way back in 1992 with humor and wit and a unique ability to shift from freshman to senior boy to girl cheerleader to theater geek In this hilarious novel Boren adeptly proves that the more things change the more things stay the same Kelly Ripa The folded notes collected for this book represent correspondence surrounding one Tara Maureen Murphy senior at South High c 1991 1992 It's 1991 and Tara Maureen Murphy is finally on top A frightening cross between Regina George and Tracy Flick Tara Maureen Murphy is any high school's worst nightmare bringing single minded ambition narcissism manipulation and jealousy to new extremes in this outrageous satirical twist on the coming of age novel She's got a hot jock boyfriend in Christopher Patrick Caparelli her best friend Stef Campbell by her side and she's a SENIOR poised to star as Sandy in South High's production of Grease Clinching the role is just one teensy step in Tara's plot to get out of her hometown and become the Broadway starlet she was born to be She's grasping distance from the finish line graduation and college are right around the corner but she has to remain vigilant This dumb town as we know can be a very tricky place Tara Maureen Murphy It gets trickier with the arrival of freshman Matthew Bloom whose dazzling audition for the role of Danny Zuko turns Tara's world upside down Freshmen belong in the chorus not the spotlight But Tara's outrage is tinged with an unfamiliar emotion at least to her adoration And what starts as a conniving ploy to mentor young Matt quickly turns into a romantic obsession that threatens to topple Tara's hard won status at South High

The Folded Lie Carlota Lindsay, 2001-12-07 In a small provincial university town everybody is trying to marry off the young divorcee who has just been hired Sexual intrigues underlie the lives of the people portrayed in this allegorical novel incidentally placed on a campus The chairman is up for review there is opposition in the department then open revolt Will he be reelected The new assistant professor in an otherwise all male department is willing to risk everything Will the administration consider her plight and resolve the situation favorably Life on campus and in the town comes alive in the summer when an outdoor theatrical performance loosens inhibitions and people speak and act freely Superbly crafted humorously diverting witty and unusual Letter to the Reader The reader needs to enter a novel barefoot and naked That means leaving aside his persona and being ready to be immersed in the reality the novel provides When a reader comes to a novel with preconceived notions he comes out of it frustrated because his expectations have not been met Let us talk about The Folded Lie At first glance it doesn't look like most novels There is plenty of dialogue and quotation marks are used only rarely How do you know who is talking The dash lets you know someone is speaking but not always who it is or to whom Sometimes it is hard to guess but after a while you will get the hang of it Furthermore the two main characters are unnamed they are referred to only as she and he and you will find no objective description of either one Only now and then someone else reflects their appearances There is no adventure in the ordinary sense one gradually realizes that there is a problem to be solved The story is about people seen mainly from one angle and from that angle their humanity and vulnerability are visible What about the content of that story It takes place in academe but that is incidental since it describes by implication any institution where power is exercised The action occurs in a locale that could be anywhere What happens Basically nothing What counts is how the characters feel about the events that surround them how they understand and react to the forces that affect their lives In what words can one describe this kind of book Take it in your hands feel it open it and read a few pages at random It seems more like a play than a novel It is called on the title page a comedy of bad manners And there is a List of Characters at the end almost the dramatis personae of old plays that lets you know who is who and how who is related to whom Here they are related not to each other but according to the system or organization they belong to In this particular system women with few exceptions don't count for much Many are wives of the men but are relegated to backstage and are only briefly heard or seen If a woman by some fluke belongs to the system she finds herself isolated misunderstood manipulated and ultimately scorned eliminated And at the center of this drama of elimination an actual theatrical production reflects the basic problem posed by the text the characters are playacting using words and body language to manipulate other people while at the same time they watch themselves act In a word it is a comedy of bad faith Presenting characters as if in a play is not without consequences for the reader In many novels the author narrator is a primary source of information concerning the people that inhabit the pages we read Since plays are meant to be experienced in performance rather than in silent reading that information is communicated by other means stage directions the production and mostly the actors who bring the characters to life with a stamp of individuality Here in The Folded Lie reading is a matter of listening to the voice of the characters as it is embodied in the words they use and the rhythm of their utterances It

The Folds Clint Townsend, 2010-05 On July 23 1978 Danny Lee Albright turned ten years old As a birthday present his father Tommy Lee surprised him and his four friends with a trip to meet Superman at the comic book store Tommy asked the boys If you had one wish for a super power what would it be Danny sat quietly in the front seat thinking long and hard as to what special talent he would possess What would you wish for Tommy pushed Danny turned to his father and proudly stated I'd see the future Some wishes should never come true Printed on back cover
