No Lilies Or Violets Reminiscences Of A Fighter Pilot:

No Lilies Or Violets Jonathan A. Hayes, 2011 No Lilies or Violets Reminiscences of a Fighter Pilot the first book written by author Jonathan A Hayes is a fast paced in your face trip into the world of an F 4 Phantom II fighter pilot and his exploits during eleven years and three tours into the tumultuous Vietnam war Hayes recounts his reminiscences forty years after the experiences lending a mature insight into the raucous adventures of a man and his machine Visceral recollections are dished to the reader in a shotgun of images This is a man putting his life on the line numerous times a week having to react at lightning speed in concert with pilots around him as they pursue the ever moving enemy in hostile and explosive environment One of the weird things about aerial combat is how quiet it is The air around you will be filled with explosions from anti aircraft shells and missiles and the only thing you will hear is your backseater s quiet breathing and the occasional radio transmission You are totally cut off from the sonic part of your surroundings They lived hard and played hard in an effort to maintain their sanity and balance so that could go out there and do it again the next day No Lilies or Violets puts the reader in the mind of a fighter pilot Daily on the ground routines are predictable but the mind and body are always braced and torqued for the next bombing run Join Hayes for a journey into war
