to be able to address any number of problems and questions that parishioners have often with little in the way of counseling training This book written by two respected authors one a preacher the other an ethicist will go a long way to not only helping priests to provide moral discernment but to actively welcome helping people through difficult times Don't

Defeat Your Purpose Dr. Shane Erxleben,2022-11-03 Dear Reader In this book the Spirit of God led me to give instruction and understanding of being called to preach Without this critical understanding could very well lead someone to do more damage than good thus defeating their purpose of the call The book begins by bringing complete attention to the preacher themselves to recognize the call of the Lord and progress through his process to build character and faith The biggest focus is devoted to receiving the God given message for his people utilizing proper exegetical study to the Word applying proper homiletics provide current application of the Word to bring relevancy and always keep Christ and the cross at the center of it all The book finishes up by demonstrating the need for the preacher to move aside and allow the Holy Spirit and the anointing to bring spiritual change in the people Even though this book was dedicated as a guide for the preacher anyone that is Christian and desires a greater understanding of the Word can apply these concepts as well Blessings Dr Shane Erxleben

Ackerman,2024-04-30 The call to holistic preaching has many dimensions Are we called to preach the good news of God's grace Advocate for justice Is preaching worship A prophetic act Yes Jennifer Ackerman answers to all of the above Through personal stories biblical examples and concrete advice readers will learn how to join gospel and justice in community Ackerman draws on her experience as a practitioner teacher and director of Brehm Preaching A Lloyd John Ogilvie Initiative at Fuller Theological Seminary to provide concrete tools for readers seeking to develop their capacity for preaching with a relational focus Ackerman helps us think about preaching through the lenses of community justice worship and prophecy The work of the church is work best done together both within congregations and as ministers connect with fellow practitioners Grounded in Scripture with tangible resources and exemplar sermons Preaching the Gospel of Justice is a hands on tool for translating theory into practice Preaching from the Old Testament Walter Brueggemann, 2019-05-07 In this new volume prolific scholar Walter Brueggemann seeks to show Christian preachers how to consider the faith witnessed in several Old Testament traditions and to help them discover rich and suggestive connections to our contemporary faith challenges The author also assumes that a wholesale sustained engagement with the Old Testament is worth the effort for the preacher He recognizes what he calls the sorry state of Old Testament texts in the Revised Common Lectionary which he claims often constitute a major disservice for the church and its preachers The lectionary gerrymanders the Old Testament to make it serve other claims most of the time not allowing it to have its own evangelical say Brueggemann hopes that his exposition in this volume will evoke and energize fresh homiletical attention to the Old Testament precisely because he believes the urgent work of the gospel in our society requires attentive listening to these ancient voices of bold insistent faith

Engaging the Gadfly Casey T. Sigmon, 2025-06-09 In 2020 most preachers and congregations were forced into online and hybrid preaching We had to react quickly For some this adventure opened creative forms of preaching stitches duets reels and VR For others it was a season of just getting by cell phones propped up on books laptops on dining room tables We did what we could to proclaim the good news in turbulent times Five years later Sigmon invites preachers and congregations to reflect on those experiences as they consider the future of preaching She helps the reader engage the Gadfly whose buzzing signals a shift in how we understand relationships truth presence and place in this digital age Sociologists and historians argue that we are now on the brink of a shift in communication as transformative as the invention of the printing press No wonder ministry is so challenging right now Ultimately this digital age like previous ages of technological change presents problems and possibilities to the practice of preaching and so ecclesologically the shape of the church What shapes will emerge Sigmon will empower preachers and congregations to answer that question for themselves through a new media homilecclesiology
