Night Gossamer Selected Poems 2013:

Night, Gossamer Dennis Price, 2015-11-30 Selected works from Minnesota poet Dennis F Price Emma Lazarus: Selected Poems Emma Lazarus, 2005-04-07 The first important American Jewish poet Emma Lazarus is remembered above all for her classic sonnet The New Colossus whose phrases Give me your tired your poor have become part of the American language In this new selection of Lazarus's work John Hollander demonstrates that in her relatively brief life she achieved real poetic mastery in a variety of modes In early poems like Phantasies and Symphonic Studies she explored fluently imagined inner landscapes suggested by the music of Schumann Later her deepening interest in Jewish history and culture was expressed in such powerful poems as 1492 The New Ezekiel and The Guardian of the Red Disk Influenced both by American models among them her poetic mentor Emerson and by the poets whose work she translated including Heinrich Heine and the medieval Hebrew poets Solomon Ibn Gabirol and Judah ha Levi she forged a poetic style of high technical accomplishment and moral passion Long neglected her work is revealed in this volume as an important contribution to American poetry About the American Poets Project Elegantly designed in compact editions printed on acid free paper and textually authoritative the American Poets Project makes available the full range of the American poetic accomplishment selected and introduced by today's most discerning poets and critics New and Selected Poems Philip Appleman, 1996-07-01 Poems discuss the lessons that can be learned from everyday life evolution Bible stories and other subjects Selected Poems of Thomas Hood, Winthrop Mackworth Praed, and Thomas Lovell Beddoes Susan J. Wolfson, Peter J. Manning, 2000 This anthology brings together three powerfully original figures who vividly capture the spirit and anxieties of their age Thomas Hood and Winthrop Mackworth Praed write with a self-conscious playfulness about literary history and traditions as well as an active and often satirical engagement with contemporary social and political culture Thomas Lovell Beddoes has always held the interest of the dark Victorianists for his lushly lurid imagination and of the modernists for his ironic frequently caustic verses Most of all these are three amazingly interesting poets full of verbal wit evocative imagery compelling imaginations Although he started by writing in the style of Keats Thomas Hood 1799-1845 declared I have to be a lively Hood for a livelihood and devoted most of his career to comic verse But his sheer verbal ingenuity and endlessly inventive punning do not conceal his phobias and fears nor overshadow the emerging social protest that was to shape the impressive poems in his later years Winthrop Mackworth Praed 1802-1839 observed the social scene of his day the flirtations political intrigues elegant chit chat and parliamentary procedures with sparkling self-deprecating wit Having read law Praed was called to the Bar in 1829 and entered Parliament as a Conservative in 1830 Even so he wrote to his school friend and future editor Having been favoured by Nature with a long face a short purse and two elder Brothers I find no way of making myself popular in the circle in which she has placed me except versifying Thomas Lovell Beddoes 1803-1849 who committed suicide was in the editor's words brilliant solitary eccentric erratic homosexual politically radical a poet of powerful haunting imagination and like the other morbidly witty poets in this volume is most characteristic for his defiance of easy characterization He has been called the last Elizabethan a Jacobean scion an original interpreter of gothic terror the first modernist and with his comic grotesqueries a precursor of the twentieth century theater of the absurd The editors introductions to each poet are lively and accessible to the non specialist while their editorial work both in establishing the texts and in their annotation and apparatus makes this an ideal text for specialist study as well
