Jonah Amy Erickson, 2021-05-18 The dominant reading of the book of Jonah that the hapless prophet Jonah is a lesson in not trying to run away from God oversimplifies a profoundly literary biblical text argues Amy Erickson Likewise the more recent understanding of Jonah as satire is problematic in its own right laden as it is with anti Jewish undertones and the superimposition of a Christian worldview onto a Jewish text How can we move away from these stale interpretations to recover the richness of meaning that belongs to this short but noteworthy book of the Bible This Illuminations commentary delves into Jonah s reception history in Christian Jewish and Islamic contexts while also exploring its representations in visual arts music literature and pop culture After this thorough contextualization Erickson provides a fresh translation and exegesis paving the way for pastors and scholars to read and utilize the book of Jonah as the provocative richly allusive and theologically robust text that it is Interreligious Theology Ephraim Meir,2015-08-17 This book is the first greater attempt to construct a dialogical theology from a Jewish point of view It contributes to an emerging new theology that promotes the interrelatedness of religions in which encounter openness hospitality and permanent learning are central The monograph is about the self and the other inner and outer own and strange about borders and crossing borders and about the sublime activities of passing and translating Meir analyses and critically discusses the writings of great contemporary Jewish dialogical thinkers and argues that the values of interreligious theology are moored in their thoughts In his view interreligious dialogue supposes attentive listening humility a critical attitude towards oneself and others a good amount of self relativism and humor It is about proximity dialogical reading engagement and interconnectedness Intersecting Pathways Marc Aaron Krell,2003 Marc A Krell analyzes the theologies of four twentieth century Jewish thinkers Hans Joachim Schoeps Franz Rosenzweig Richard Rubenstein and Irving Greenberg who have constructed theologies based on their interaction with Christian thought and culture Their work reflects a common attempt to understand the impact of Christian culture on the historical events prior to and following the Holocaust and to reevaluate the relationship between the two religions in light of a history of theological anti Judaism and modern racial antisemitism Ludwig Strauss: An Approach to His Bilingual “Parallel Poems” Julia Matveev,2018-08-06 This book is devoted to the study of the bilingual parallel poems of Ludwig Strauss Aachen 1892 Jerusalem 1953 created between 1934 and 1952 in Palestine Israel and which exist in two variants a Hebrew and a German version one of which is the original and the other a self translation The aim of this study is to compare the versions and their interpretation based on Strauss s theoretical essays on poetry and translation his political writings and works of literary criticism Special attention is paid to Strauss s concept linked with the idea of messianic redemption of poetry as a fore image of a future true community of men and as the earthly expression of the Absolute directed at interpreting divine revelation and its translation into human language In examining Strauss s experiments with self translation by which he aimed at establishing a dialogue between languages and between people and nations this study considers the two processes of translation from divine speech into human language and from one human language into another Encyclopedia of the Literature of Empire Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2010 Examines the world s
