Philosophy of Sex and Love Patricia Marino, 2019-03-13 Writing for non specialists and students as well as for fellow philosophers this book explores some basic issues surrounding sex and love in today s world among them consent objectification non monogamy racial stereotyping and the need to reconcile contemporary expectations about gender equality with our beliefs about how love works Author Patricia Marino argues that we cannot fully understand these issues by focusing only on individual desires and choices Instead we need to examine the social contexts within which choices are made and acquire their meanings That perspective she argues is especially needed today when the values of individualism self expression and self interest permeate our lives Marino asks how we can fit these values which govern so many areas of contemporary life with the generosity caring and selflessness we expect in love and sex
