Nigerian Newspapers Online Read Them:

Historical Dictionary of Nigeria Toyin Falola, Ann Genova, Matthew M. Heaton, 2018-06-21 The Historical Dictionary of Nigeria Second Edition introduces Nigeria's rich and complex history. Readers will find a wealth of information on pre 20th century history, Nigeria under British colonial rule, and important post independence issues while providing greater attention to Nigeria's role in international relations, diaspora, and contributions to arts, film, and culture in particular. This revised edition covers major developments since the last edition, such as the rise of the terrorist group Boko Haram and the election of Muhammadu Buhari to the presidency in 2015, among others. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Nigeria Second Edition contains a chronology, an introduction, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 1,000 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Nigeria.

Understanding the Newspaper Business in Nigeria Godfrey Naanlang Danaan, David Jowitt, Taye C. Obateru, 2016-09-23 This book brings together a selection of articles on newspaper writing and reporting. It represents a resource book intended to sensitize would-be journalists to the arts of reporting and writing and to the ways in which newspaper readership can be sustained in the age of online messaging. It will provide students of journalism and media studies, particularly in Nigeria, with the skills required by newspaper journalism and is a response to the poverty of literature on newspaper journalism in Nigerian universities and colleges.

Islamophobia in Non-Western Online Newspapers Isyaku Hassan, Mohd Nazri Latiff Azmi, 2021-03-03 The media attention towards Islam has increased recently, but meeting the quality standards in reporting the religion is often of great concern in this regard. This issue has been debated since the aftermath of violent incidents such as the 9/11 attacks in 2001, the Afghanistan War in 2002, the Iraq War in 2003, the Danish cartoon row in 2005, the London bombings in 2005, the Paris attacks in 2015, and the New Zealand shootings in 2017. In reporting violence, the media tend to construct a negative image of Islam, which is likely to reproduce unfounded hostility toward Islam and Muslims, known as Islamophobia. This book provides a systematic analysis of how non-western online newspapers reproduce Islamophobia in news reporting.

Nigeria's Digital Diaspora Farooq A. Kperogi, 2020 Over a decade ago, when Nigeria's migratory digital elite in the United States pioneered a newfangled form of citizen online journalism that disrupted the professional certainties of domestic legacy journalism, the country's professional journalists held out hope that the disruptive effect of this insurgent, non-professionalized, non-routinized but nonetheless transformative form of journalism would be transitory. But diasporic citizen online journalism is not only now an integral part of Nigeria's media ecosystem; it has also inspired successful homeland digital native emulators and is challenging even supplanting, in some cases, traditional domestic media formations as sites of consequential democratic discourse. With Nigeria's frenetic and deeply engaged social media scene, diasporan citizen journalism, homeland news, and social media activism are merging to create the most energetic moment in Nigeria's media history. This book chronicles the emergence and transformation of Nigeria's diasporic citizen journalism from the margins to the mainstream of the country's journalistic landscape and draws parallels with the mainstreaming of alternative media formations in other parts of the world Farooq A Kperogi is Associate Professor of Journalism and Emerging Media at Kennesaw State University Georgia USA He is a columnist for the Nigerian Tribune and blogs at <https://www.farooqkperogi.com> Nigerian English David Jowitt, 2018-11-05 Although the past few decades have witnessed growing interest in varieties of English around the world no study of the Nigerian variety intended for the international market has yet been published Making use of well known paradigms the book will relate Nigerian English as a Second Language variety to other World Englishes Its chief overall concern however is to provide a detailed descriptive account of the variety seeking to show what is distinctive about it and also in this perspective distinguishing between more educated and less educated usage After giving a sociolinguistic profile of Nigeria where English today enjoys a more prominent role than ever before it will examine in turn the phonology morpho syntax and lexico semantics of Nigerian English with samples of written texts from the eighteenth century to the present It will also give a comprehensive summary of academic research carried out in the field over the past fifty years In this way the book will provide an introduction to the subject for the benefit of scholars and students in universities in many countries and will serve as a useful companion to other books in De Gruyter Mouton's Dialects of English series Nigerian Media Industries in the Era of Globalization Unwana Samuel Akpan, 2023-01-09 In Nigerian Media Industries in the Era of Globalization editor Unwana Samuel Akpan provides a timely collection of relevant key and well informed contributions on the Nigerian media industries in a changing media landscape This collection assembles both media professionals and professors of media practice and theory to address how the Nigerian media industry has changed in a globalized world The chapters apply scholarship research and industry experience to modern media narratives as well as a blend of Nigerian cultural concepts and idioms of communication The contributors provide a historicized account of the Nigerian indigenous media systems and Nigerian mainstream media industry examine media law in Nigeria and media ownership in Nigeria express concerns over fake news in relation to elections explore changes in journalism broadcasting health communication organizational communication AI in countering terrorism sports media and draw conclusions on how the media has changed in digital spaces This book is essential for media scholars and media professionals who are interested in the growth and survival of the Nigerian media in the era of globalization Interactivity and the Online Media Sphere in Nigeria Joseph Wilson, 2019-01-15 In today's age of extraordinary technological development the mass media industry must constantly innovate and adopt emerging concepts to keep up with the demand of online visibility and prominence Interactivity is a distinguishing feature of the current online environment and is a necessity in maintaining relevance in digital media sphere The growing impact of new media technologies and the resulting pressure on mass media organizations to incorporate more audience involvement have made interactivity a particularly sought after phenomenon throughout the industry The
