Ten Nights in a Bar-room Timothy Shay Arthur, 1855 Nights in Haunted Houses Peter Underwood, 1994

The eerie quiet and disorientating darkness of the night have long been associated with the terror of the unknown. In the cold light of day it is all too easy for sceptics to dismiss apparently inexplicable events, but in the dead of night when faced with the evidence of their senses and those of other perfectly rational people it is far more difficult to ignore the facts, however disturbing they may be. Peter Underwood is Britain's leading ghost hunter. For over thirty years in his position as President and Chief Investigator of the Ghost Club of Great Britain he was actively involved in undertaking night vigils and carrying out research into ghosts and paranormal activity in controlled scientific conditions. In this unique volume of largely unpublished accounts of nocturnal investigations he guides you on a chilling tour of the most haunted houses in Great Britain. Among others we encounter the headless Blue Lady and disturbing inexplicable odour of lavender of Bovey House in Devon; the happy spirits monk of Bromfield Manor, Shropshire, who chuckles with delight when noticed; and the strange disembodied voices, footsteps and unnatural coldness of Newark Park, Gloucestershire. In Nights in Haunted Houses Peter Underwood vividly records terrifying accounts of ghostly encounters in locations as diverse as a farmhouse, a church, a castle and a council house, and builds a convincing catalogue of evidence for the existence of ghosts.

Arabian Nights, in 16 volumes, 2008-12-01

Notorious for the delight he took in tweaking the sexual taboos of the Victorian age as well as the delight he took in the resulting shock of his bashful peers, British adventurer, linguist and author CAPTAIN SIR RICHARD FRANCIS BURTON 1821-1890 is perhaps best remembered for his unexpurgated translation of the Eastern classic The One Thousand and One Nights, more famously known today as The Arabian Nights. Originating in Persian, Indian and Arabic sources as far back as the ninth century AD, this collection of bawdy tales which Burton was the first to bring to English readers in uncensored form has exerted incalculable influence on modern literature. It represents one of the earliest examples of a framing story, as young Shahrazad, under threat of execution by the King, postpones her death by regaling him with these wildly entertaining stories over the course of 1,001 nights. The stories themselves feature early instances of sexual humor, satire and parody, murder, mystery, horror and even science fiction. Burton

s annotated 16 volume collection as infamous as it is important was first published between 1885 and 1888 and remains an entertainingly naughty read Volume I includes Burton s introductory forward Story of King Shahryar and His Brother Tale of the Trader and the Jinni Tale of the Wazir and the Sage Duban Tale of the Prince and the Ogress Tale of the Ensorcelled Prince The Porter and the Three Ladies of Baghdad Tale of the Three Apples The Reeve s Tale Tale of the Jewish Doctor and others
